SEARCHING

Basic Search

Locate relevant results based on your search term(s). Basic search is a good place to start your research.

Advanced Search

Customize your search with more limiting options to target relevant results.

You can combine search fields to create a complex search for specific results.

- Select Keyword to search “hot spots” of articles, including citations, subject headings, abstracts, and the beginning of each article. This is a good general option to start your search.
- Pick Name of Work to find results that discuss a particular poem, essay, novel, or other written piece.
- Use Author to discover literary analysis or works by a specific writer or critic. This can be used to uncover unique perspectives on the craft of writing and examining literature.
- Select Person - About to locate results that analyze or discuss a particular writer.
- Choose Subject to search document tags and find results fully focused on a specific literary topic.
- Pick Entire Document to search within the entire text of documents for any mention of your terms. Find precise phrases within results, or locate articles that touch on specific concepts.
- Use Publication Title to locate documents from specific titles like Contemporary Authors.
- Select drop-down search operators to connect your search terms. AND ensures your results mention both terms. OR broadens your search to results mentioning either term. NOT excludes a term.

The screenshot shows the 'Advanced Search' page of the Gale Literature Resource Center. At the top, there's a search bar and navigation links for 'Search History', 'Get Link', and 'Highlights And Notes'. Below the search bar, there are 'SEARCH OPTIONS' including 'Advanced Search', 'Person Search', 'Works Search', and 'Topic Finder'. The main section is titled 'Advanced Search' and contains three search rows. Each row has a text input field, a dropdown menu for the search operator (And), and a dropdown menu for the search field (Keyword, Name Of Work, Person-By or About). There is an 'Add a Row' button and a 'Search' button. Below this, there are 'MORE OPTIONS' including a checkbox for 'Peer-Reviewed Journals', radio buttons for 'by publication date(s)' (All Dates, Before, On, After, Between), a dropdown for 'by publication century', a dropdown for 'by content type', and a label for 'by publication title'.

Use More Options in combination with search terms, or on their own for a broad view of available content.

- Click to limit results to Peer-Reviewed Journals.
- Select Content Type(s) to specify broad categories of results, like literature criticism or biographies.
- Choose Document Type(s) to focus on specific types of results, like interviews or character overviews.

Person Search and Works Search

Specify characteristics like century, author nationality, and author gender, or enter a name or title to generate a list of matching writers or works covered within Gale Literature Resource Center. Then click to quickly discover relevant results.

These search options can help you generate literary research topics by identifying authors and titles of interest.

Topic Finder

Generate a visual representation of your search results by topic and subtopic. Topic Finder organizes results based on the frequency of occurring terms, allowing you to hone in on targeted keywords, envision connections between topics, and create new research paths. Use Topic Finder if you're having trouble coming up with a research topic, when you have an idea for a topic and want to investigate related topics, or when you want to narrow your search results.

As you click around in the Topic Finder, results on the right update dynamically, allowing for one-click access into relevant content. Simply click on an article to view it.

WORKING WITH RESULTS

Content Types

After searching or browsing, explore organized results.

- Literature Criticism analyzes and interprets authors, works, and movements. These documents are written by literary experts, and are a great way to understand the scholarly discussion around a title, to delve into its meaning, or to strengthen your own thesis about the work.
- Biographies cover the details of authors' lives and careers so that you can thoroughly evaluate their works.
- Topic & Work Overviews survey titles and movements, and provide a starting point to build your awareness and understanding.
- Reviews & News present recent coverage and commentary from top publications. New results are added every day.
- Primary Sources & Literary Works provide access to full-text short stories, poems, novels, and other writings, as well as interviews related to your search.
- Multimedia offers unique sources to enhance your understanding and research. These results may include audio interviews, images of authors, and links to curated websites.

Search Results

Click a content type to access sorting and limiting options, and quickly pinpoint specific results.

- Sort By: Use this drop-down to explore results with the highest relevance based on factors like the frequency and location of references to your search terms, to order documents alphabetically, or to view the newest or oldest articles.
- Filter Your Results: Click to access and apply limits based on Subjects, Name of Work, and more. Or, select Search Within and submit additional terms to refine your search. Use these options to narrow your topic when you have a large number of results.
- Topic Finder: Visually analyze your current results, hone your topic, and discover more search terms.
- Term Frequency: Select this tool, and then enter a word or phrase. Graph the number of times it has occurred within your search results over the years, and gain insight into key trends within the discussion of literature.

WORKING WITH DOCUMENTS

Click the title of a result to manage your research with document tools and features.

- Use Cite to generate a citation using MLA, APA, or Chicago style. Export the citation into a variety of tools, or simply copy and paste it into your bibliography.
- Click Send to... to email or export the result to your Google Drive™ or OneDrive™ account, allowing you to access it indefinitely. A Gale Literature Resource Center folder is automatically created to make it easy to find your exported documents.
- Download or Print the document to keep a copy of the result.
- Use Get Link to create a URL back to practically any page within Gale Literature Resource Center. Copy and paste the link in documents, on websites, or anywhere else you'd normally place a URL. This tool provides an easy way for you to share individual results, searches, and more.
- Annotate important text with Highlights and Notes. Click and drag to select text within a result, choose a highlighter color, and add notes to the selection. You can also select an individual word within the text and choose Define to search for definitions of an unknown term. Download, Print, or Send to... email, Google Drive™, or OneDrive™ to retain your highlights and notes with the result. Click the Highlights and Notes tool and then choose View All Highlights and Notes to access a summary of your annotations. Once you leave the database, your work is erased to protect your privacy.
- Select Translate to view a machine translation of the document in the language of your choice.
- Click Listen to have the article read aloud to you. After clicking play, you can download the audio .mp3.
- Explore additional documents with similar subject terms by selecting Related Subjects. These options link you to further results to boost your understanding and enhance your research.
