

kids infoBits™

EASY-TO-USE INTERFACE INVITES STUDENTS TO EXPLORE

Kids InfoBits contains full-text proprietary content from Blackbirch Press® and U•X•L. Also included are more than 100 full-text, age-appropriate magazines, more than 6,400 searchable, indexed images, Merriam-Webster®'s Elementary Dictionary and 1,200 maps, flags & seals and over 1,700 colorful charts and graphs. It features a developmentally appropriate and visual graphic interface.

Broad subject categories include animals, arts & entertainment, geography, health, history & social studies, inventions & technology, plants, people, science & math, sports, stories & literature and transportation. Users may explore these categories, working their way down to more specific subcategories, or they may perform subject or advanced searches.

TAKE A LOOK AT THESE SAMPLE SEARCHES

Note: Periodicals and newspapers are updated daily; exact number of results vary.

HISTORY & SOCIAL STUDIES

Clicking on the “History & Social Studies” graphical link on the home page yields a subcategory of subjects, including:

- Ethnic groups
- Government and politics
- Historical people
- Money, business and economics
- Other government and political leaders
- Religions
- Social studies
- U.S. history
- U.S. presidents
- World history

MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPER ARTICLES

Thousands of articles are retrieved from a variety of magazines and newspapers, including:

- Appleseeds
- Calliope
- Junior Scholastic
- Kids Discover
- Time for Kids
- USA Today
- Weekly Reader

▲ A variety of entry points greet young researchers

▲ Kids InfoBits contains more than 6,400 searchable, indexed images

www.galeschools.com

MAPS, FLAGS, SEALS, CHARTS AND GRAPHS

Other resources found are nearly 3,000 maps, charts, graphs & flags and seals on a variety of subjects, including:

- Animal images
- Map of the world with selected countries and currencies
- Different types of presidential pets from the past and present (graph)
- Kids and teens television viewing time (chart)
- Map of world population density
- Percentage of U.S. population that is foreign born (graph)

SCIENCE & MATH

Clicking on the “science & math” graphical link on the home page yields a subcategory of subjects, including:

- Space and astronomy
- Earth science
- Weather
- Chemistry and physical sciences

MAGAZINES AND NEWSPAPER ARTICLES

Thousands of articles are retrieved from a variety of magazines and newspapers, including:

- Current Science, a Weekly Reader publication
- Highlights for Children
- Odyssey
- Science Activities
- Science World

PEOPLE

Clicking on the “people” graphical link on the home page yields a category of subjects that lead to a subcategory of more subjects.

TEACHER TOOLBOX

In addition, Kids InfoBits contains a variety of worksheets that teachers may print off and use in the classroom.

FREE TRIAL

Kids InfoBits™ is available for a free trial. Please contact your Gale Representative.

In the U.S. and Canada:
1-800-877-GALE or visit
www.galeschools.com

Outside the U.S. and Canada: e-mail
international@gale.com or visit www.gale.com/world