Contents

Why Consider Opposing Viewpoints? 11
Introduction 14

Chapter 1: Are American Prisons Effective?
Chapter Preface 18
1. Prison Deters Crime 20
   Bruce Bayley
2. Prison Does Not Deter Crime 25
   Joel Waldfogel
3. Prisons Can Rehabilitate 30
   Shreveport Times
4. Prison Rehabilitation Efforts Are Ineffective 35
   Dana Pico
5. Alternative Sentencing Would Be 40
   More Effective Than Prison
   Ruth David
6. Alternatives to Prison Are Dangerous 48
   and Ineffective
   Thomas Sowell

Periodical Bibliography 53

Chapter 2: Are American Prisons Just?
Chapter Preface 55
1. America’s Imprisonment Practices Are Racist 57
   Glenn Loury
2. America’s Imprisonment Practices 71
   Are Not Racist
   Heather Mac Donald
3. Mandatory Minimum Sentencing Is Just in Drug Cases
   Jodi L. Avergun

4. Mandatory Minimum Sentencing Is Unjust
   Robert Hooker and Robert Hirsh

5. Imprisoning Drug Users Is Just
   Theodore Dalrymple

6. Imprisoning Nonviolent Drug Users Is Unjust
   Michael Huemer

7. Disenfranchising Prisoners Is Just
   Ben Johnson

8. Disenfranchising Prisoners Is Unjust
   Conor Clarke and Greg Yothers

Periodical Bibliography

Chapter 3: Are American Prisons Humane?

Chapter Preface

1. American Prisons Are Humane
   Harley G. Lappin

2. Overcrowding in American Prisons Is Inhumane
   Craig Haney

3. Stun Technology Makes Prisons Safer
   Jeff Wiehe

4. Stun Technology Is Inhumane and Dangerous
   Anne-Marie Cusac

5. California Must Spend More on Prison Health Care
   J. Clark Kelso
Chapter 4: How Should Different Prison Populations Be Treated?

Chapter Preface

1. Allowing Inmate Moms to Raise Their Children in Prison Is Beneficial
   Suzanne Smalley

2. Raising Children in Prison May Be Harmful
   Carol Lloyd

3. Juveniles Should Not Be Placed in Adult Prisons
   Campaign for Youth Justice

4. Life Without Parole in the Adult System Is Reasonable for Some Juvenile Offenders
   Charles D. Stimson and Andrew M. Grossman

5. The Mentally Ill Should Not Be Placed in the Prison System
   Jamie Fellner

6. Focusing on Mental Illness in Prison Prevents Real Reform
   Susan Mortimer

Periodical Bibliography

For Further Discussion

Organizations to Contact

Bibliography of Books

Index