Contents

Why Consider Opposing Viewpoints? 11
Introduction 14

Chapter 1: Is the Death Penalty Just and Ethical?
Chapter Preface 19
1. Why I Support the Death Penalty 21
   Edward Koch
2. Justice Is Not Served with the Death Penalty 25
   Raymond Lesniak
3. Christian Doctrine Supports Capital Punishment 34
   Bryan Fischer
   United States Conference of Catholic Bishops

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography 46

Chapter 2: Does the Death Penalty Serve the Public Good?
Chapter Preface 48
1. The Death Penalty Deters Crime 51
   David Muhlhausen
2. The Death Penalty Isn’t the Answer to Crime Woes 59
   Jack Weil
3. The Cost of the Death Penalty Outweighs Its Benefits to Society 63
   Julie Delcour
4. The Death Penalty Is Essential, and Its Cost Is Irrelevant 68
   Derek Schmidt
5. Death Penalty Would End Punishment of Victim’s Family
   Irl Stambaugh and Gary Stambaugh

6. The Death Penalty Does Not Fulfill Survivors’ Needs for Closure
   Susan Bandes, as told to Murder Victims’ Families for Human Rights

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography

Chapter 3: Is the Death Penalty Applied Fairly?

Chapter Preface

1. The Capital Punishment System Is Still Racially Biased
   David A. Love

2. Racial Bias in the Capital Punishment System Has Decreased over Time
   Charles Lane

3. DNA Testing Reveals Serious Problems in the Capital Punishment System
   Radley Balko

4. DNA Testing Cannot Solve Fundamental Flaws in the Capital Punishment System
   Juan Roberto Meléndez-Colón

5. People with Mental Illness Should Be Exempt from the Death Penalty
   Susannah Sheffer

6. Many People with Mental Illness Should Not Be Exempt from the Death Penalty
   Sam Vaknin

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography
Chapter 4: Should the Death Penalty Be Abolished or Reformed?

Chapter Preface 137

1. Death Penalty Is Dead Wrong: It’s Time to Outlaw Capital Punishment in America—Completely
   Mario M. Cuomo 139

2. The Death Penalty Should Not Be Abolished
   Bruce Fein 146

3. Why Death-Penalty Opponents Can’t Win
   Jonah Goldberg 154

4. Executions Should Stop Until the Capital Punishment Process Is Reformed
   Michael Hall 158

5. The Death Penalty Cannot Be Reformed and Should Be Abolished
   Richard C. Dieter 165

6. Incarceration for Life Without Parole Could Replace the Death Penalty
   Robert Johnson and Sandra McGunigall-Smith 173

Periodical and Internet Sources Bibliography 182

For Further Discussion 183

Organizations to Contact 186

Bibliography of Books 192

Index 197