Contents

Introduction 7

1. Compensation Committees Should Use Reason to Limit Executives’ Salaries 10
   Mark W. Olson

2. Executives Must Be Paid Well in Order to Attract Top Talent 15
   Dominic Basulto

3. CEOs Want to Hide the Gap Between Worker Pay and Their Own 24
   Sam Pizzigati

4. Executive Compensation Should Be Tied to Company Profitability 30
   Clive Crook

5. Executive Compensation Should Not Be Tied to Company Profitability 36
   Robert P. Murphy

6. Executives’ High Salaries Should Be Capped 48
   Dean Calbreath

7. Executives’ High Salaries Should Not Be Capped 54
   Steven Pearlstein

8. Government Should Regulate Private-Sector Executive Compensation 59
   Sarah Anderson and Sam Pizzigati

9. Government Should Not Regulate Private-Sector Executive Compensation 64
   Mitchell Schnurman
10. Shareholders Must Be Active in Determining Executive Compensation
   Fred G. Steingraber and Karen Kane

11. Executives Put Profits Before Good Business Decisions
    Les Leopold

12. Government Regulation Is the Wrong Way to Fix Executive Compensation
    Edward E. Lawler III

Organizations to Contact
Bibliography
Index