SEARCHING BY KEYWORD, SUBJECT, OR ENTIRE DOCUMENT

To broaden or narrow your search in one step, three types of searches are available from the Search Box. Click on the corresponding radio button of your choice.

- Keyword Search – Searches the key fields (title, citation, introductory text) of the documents in the database for your search term. Yields relevant results.
- Subject Search – Good search to use for common topics. Yields highly relevant results.
- Entire Document Search – Best only to use this search when you are looking for an unusual phrase, new terminology or a particular line of text.

You may further narrow your results by limiting to Full Text articles, Consumer Health information, Refereed publications, or Spanish Language (en espanol) content.

ADVANCED SEARCH

Use Advanced Search for:

- Finding a specific article, when you already know the title, publication name or author
- Combining your terms with Boolean operators and index fields

Enter your term(s) in a blank box, and select an index field from the drop down list. Boolean operators, and, or and not let you connect up to three terms or you may limit your search even further by selecting one or more of the search limiters provided.

SEARCH DIRECTORY

Search for contact information for health care facilities, people, products, and offices. You can search the directory for a keyword and further narrow your query by entering in geographic details such as the city, state or province.

TOPICS IN THE NEWS

This search option allows you to access content from our partner site, Healthology. Here you will find recent health related headlines, clicking on a headline takes you to the full text of the article. Topics in the News is updated every 8 hours.

HEALTH HIGHLIGHTS

Features a single health topic, click the topic title to view the full content from Healthology which may include a video webcast. Clicking on the Read Transcript link displays the text of the webcast, the Related Programs link lets you look for additional Healthology content on similar topics.

VIEWING YOUR RESULTS

Once you execute a successful search, you will view a results list. Scan the list of titles to locate one to fit your research needs. To use your results list click on the hyperlinked text to read the document.

By clicking on the tabs at the top of the search results list, you may view:

- Books & Fact Sheets: reference content from a broad collection of Gale titles, top health information providers & fact sheets from organizations such as Harvard Health Publications and the World Health Organization
- Magazines & Journals: four million articles from more than 1,000 health and medical journals, most coming from general interest publications
- Drugs: Features easy-to-understand pharmaceutical information from sources such as the PDR for Herbal Medicines, AltCareDex Alternative Medicines, Detailed Drug Information for the Consumer, and DrugNotes
- Pamphlets: Contains the full text of pamphlets on diseases, conditions, and lifestyles most of which are coming government-sponsored groups or medical/disease associations.

- Video: You will find an extensive library of streaming video webcasts and expert-authored articles, including in-depth interviews, questions to ask your doctor, health quizzes, and more. Transcripts are available for most webcasts
- News: Contains the latest health-related news from select newspapers from around the world

Tabs with no results are "grayed out" and will not work.

Revise Search, Search History, Related Searches and Return to Results buttons are available (variously, throughout your search) in the left side bar.

From the result screen and on subsequent screens, the different Search Option buttons from the home page are displayed across the gray horizontal bar at the top of the screen for quick and easy access. This format allows you to change your search method without having to return to the home page to browse or search medical and health encyclopedias, dictionaries and directories; to access government and major medical Web sites, or to access the Disease Profiler add on module - if your library subscribes to it.

DOCUMENTS

All documents are displayed in the same basic format. Documents can be printed, e-mailed, downloaded or bookmarked using the InfoMark® icon at the top of the screen. You can narrow or refine your search from the results list. The left-side bar contains subject terms, “see also” references and subdivisions. Please note: You must be viewing the Magazine & Journals tab to use subdivisions.
