SEARCHING CONTENT

Basic Search
Search across the entire resource and discover results sorted by relevance
Basic Search is useful when you want to run a search for a narrow or precise topic, typically with multiple terms. Consider Browse by Discipline or Subject Guide Search when you have a broad topic to research.

Browse by Discipline
Click topics and retrieve articles from selected journals supporting each discipline
This is a great way to start your research if you are unsure of which search terms to use, are unfamiliar with your subject area, or find other search paths overwhelming.

Advanced Search
Customize your search and target relevant results
You can use Advanced Search to run complex searches for specific results, or to perform open searches for a broad view of available content. Some of the most popular features include:

- Keyword: Select this field to search “hot spots” of articles, including citations, subject headings, abstracts, and the beginning of each article. This is a good general option to start your search.
- Subject: Choose this field to increase specificity by using document tags to find results fully focused on your topic. Try subject if your basic search produces too many results.
- Publication Title: Use this field to find all articles or documents from a particular publication. It’s useful for browsing recent issues of sources like Nature.
- Entire Document: Pick this field to search within the entire text of documents. This option performs a broad search for any mention of your terms, and can be used to find articles that use very precise phrases or touch on specific concepts.
- Search Operators: Use these drop-downs to connect your search terms. And ensures your results mention both terms. Or broadens your search to results mentioning either term. Not excludes a term or phrase that you do not want to appear in results.
- More Options: Narrow your results to peer-reviewed journals, by publication date, by document type, and more. Many of these options are also available as Filter Your Results options after you execute a search.

Subject Guide Search
Take a guided approach to finding your topic
The subject guide search offers the ability to narrow a single topic by subdivisions, and to view narrower and broader related topics.

If you have a broad topic in mind, this search can help you identify targeted tags to find documents fully focused on the topic. You can also use this search to specify the appropriate context for words with varied meanings or to discern between people with the same name.

Publication Search
Verify the availability of a publication within Gale Academic OneFile
Use Publication Search to enter the title of a publication of interest. Click on any matching result to view coverage details, and link to articles from individual issues. You can also use Create Journal Alert to subscribe to automatic emails or receive RSS notification when a new issue is added to Gale Academic OneFile.
Topic Finder

Generate a visual representation of your search results by topic and subtopic

Topic Finder organizes results based on the frequency of occurring terms, allowing you to hone in on targeted keywords, envision connections between topics, and create new research paths. Use Topic Finder if you’re having trouble coming up with a research topic, when you have an idea for a topic and want to investigate related topics, or when you want to narrow your search results.

As you click Topic Finder tiles, results on the right update dynamically, allowing for one-click access into relevant content. Simply click an article’s title to view it.

- Topic Finder: Click to visually analyze your current results, hone your topic, and discover more search terms related to your topic.
WORKING WITH DOCUMENTS

Tools
Manage content with document tools and features

- Use Cite to generate a citation using MLA, APA, or Chicago style. Export the citation into a variety of tools, or simply copy and paste it into your bibliography.
- Click Send to... to email or export the result to your Google Drive™ or OneDrive™ account, allowing you to access it indefinitely. A Gale Academic OneFile folder is automatically created to make it easy to find your exported documents.
- Download or Print the document to keep a copy of the result, including any highlights and notes you’ve added.
- Use Get Link to create a URL back to practically any page you choose. Copy and paste the link in documents, on websites, or anywhere else you’d normally place a URL. This tool provides an easy way for you to share individual results, searches, and more.
- Annotate important text with Highlights and Notes. Click and drag to select text within a result, choose a highlighter color, and add notes to the selection. Download, Print, or Send to... email, Google Drive™, or OneDrive™ to retain your highlights and notes with the result. You can also click the Highlights and Notes tool and then choose View All Highlights and Notes to access a summary of your annotations. Once you leave the database, your work is erased to protect your privacy.
- Select Translate to view a machine translation of the document in the language of your choice.
- Click Listen to have the article read aloud to you. After clicking play, you can download the audio .mp3.
- Explore similar results by selecting articles listed under More Like This. Or, click Related Subjects to find additional documents with similar subject terms. These options link you to further results to boost your understanding and enhance your research.
