

Gale Scavenger Hunt

Canada In Context: Animal Cruelty

Directions Use the Library's database called Canada In Context to find answers to the following questions about animal cruelty. Write your answer and the source for the information in the spaces provided below.

To answer these questions, use the Animal Cruelty topic page. From the home page, click on Browse Topics and open the topic page titled Animal Cruelty.

1 Animal cruelty or animal abuse typically falls into one of two categories—active/intentional and passive/neglectful. What are some of the forms of abuse that are included in the passive/neglectful type?

Answer:

Source:

2 Animal Cruelty regularly makes the headlines in news articles. Click on the News content type. Locate an article about a Langley man and a mastiff. *Hint: Use Search within results to narrow your search results. What had happened to the dog? What did the man do?

Answer:

Source:

3 Images can have a powerful impact on a project or presentation. Click on the Image content type, and identify an image that you feel would have an impact on an audience. What did you learn about your chosen image from the caption? How do you think this image would influence an audience?

Answer:

Source:

4 Citizens in dozens of communities in Canada and the United States created independent SPCA organizations to help stop cruelty to animals. What does SPCA stand for? What does the organization do? *Hint: Click on a content type such as Reference or Magazines and use Search within results to narrow your search results.

Answer:

Source:

5 Many types of animals are affected by animal cruelty. Locate a Reference article on preventing animal cruelty. What steps can be taken to prevent animal cruelty, and what can be done if it is suspected?

Answer:

Source: