

GALE IN CONTEXT: OPPOSING VIEWPOINTS

RESEARCH YOUR PERSUASIVE PAPER

Choose a topic and explore perspectives. Then build a convincing argument supported by trusted evidence.

Access Gale In Context: Opposing Viewpoints here:

SELECT A TOPIC

Browse Issues in Gale In Context: Opposing Viewpoints and select a topic of interest. If you already have an idea, use search tools like Topic Finder to refine your choice.

REVIEW THE DEBATE

Read Featured Viewpoints on all sides of your issue. Decide which perspective you will defend.

FIND SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

Explore Viewpoints, Reference articles, Magazines, Statistics, and more to collect important points that support or refute your stance.

ORGANIZE YOUR ARGUMENTS

As you read, select text to add annotations. Use different colors to highlight points that support or refute your argument.

Click Highlights and Notes and View All Highlights and Notes to access your annotations.

Cite all your sources at once and use Send to... to export your work to Google Drive or Microsoft OneDrive. Then, organize your evidence into an outline, ending with your strongest points to conclude a compelling argument.

WRITE YOUR PAPER

With your evidence identified and organized you are ready to begin the writing process. Gale In Context: Opposing Viewpoints is always available if you find you need more evidence and sources while writing your paper.

LEARN
MORE

at support.gale.com or contact your librarian.

GALE
A Cengage Company

PERSUASIVE PAPER RESEARCH WORKSHEET

Use Gale In Context: Opposing Viewpoints to find and research a persuasive paper topic. Use the space below to choose a side, record supporting evidence, and refute arguments against your perspective.

Access Gale In Context: Opposing Viewpoints here:

TOPIC

YOUR VIEWPOINT

SUPPORTING EVIDENCE

ARGUMENTS TO DISPUTE

THESIS STATEMENT

Now that you have organized your evidence, draft a thesis statement for your paper that introduces the viewpoint you will support with persuasive arguments.

LEARN
MORE

at support.gale.com or contact your librarian.

