

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC VIRTUAL LIBRARY

Engage researchers with full-text magazines and books, videos, and images. With just a few clicks users can explore geography, history, science, cultures, and more.

Magazines: Full-text National Geographic magazines from 1888 forward with unlimited simultaneous access.

Books: Full-text eBooks published by National Geographic in their original formatting.

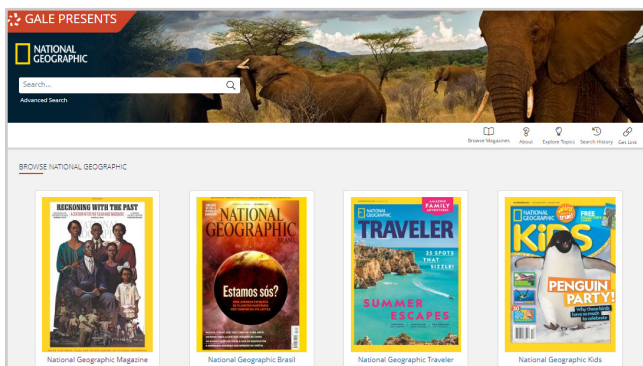

Images, Maps, and Videos: Engaging and colorful images, maps, and videos developed by National Geographic to engage researchers.

NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC VIRTUAL LIBRARY

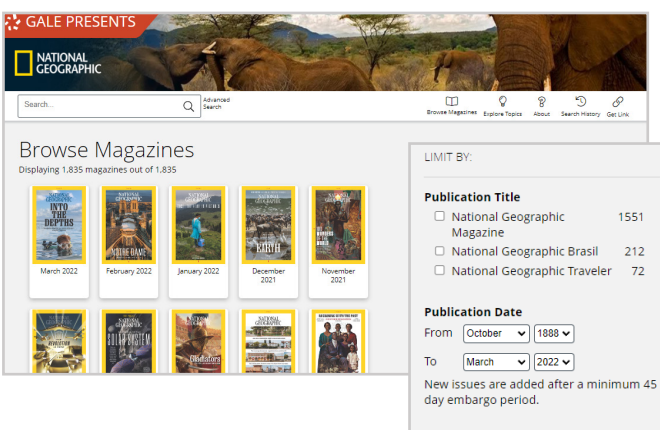

HOME PAGE

1. Browse by Publication using the magazine covers.
2. Utilize Basic Search to find specific content or content types.
3. Scroll to the bottom of the page to learn more about National Geographic and what's available at your library.

MAGAZINES

1. Select the Browse Magazines on the home page to access the Magazine Browse workflow.
2. Limit By allows you to choose a publication title or date.
3. Select a magazine to be launched into the content.

TOPICS BROWSE

1. Select Explore Topics on the homepage.
2. Browse topics to find content related to a topic of interest without running a search.
3. Select a topic using the images.
4. Launch the topic to find results from all content types.

TOPIC FINDER

1. Select Topic Finder under the Advanced Search option.
2. Type your search into the Search Bar.
3. Click into the interactive results to find topics of interest.

