

Mahsa Amini and the Fight for Women's Rights in Iran

Women around the world are fighting for basic human rights like the ability to vote, to have reproductive choices, and to have equal representation and worth in society. Recently, events in Iran have led to increased protesting of the current regime, especially surrounding laws and policies directed at women.

Utilize Gale In Context: High School to research the questions below. As you explore the database, try to put yourself in their shoes, how would you feel living in those situations? How would you fight for your rights?

1

Who is Mahsa Amini? What happened to her?

Source:

2

Who are the “Morality Police”?

Source:

3

Search for “Mahsa Amini” and look at the pictures. Select the one you find most interesting, and using Get Link at the top of the page, post the URL here. Why did you select this image? What do you find interesting?

Source:

4

How are people protesting what happened to Mahsa Amini? What has been Iran’s response?

Source:

5

How can you show support for women fighting for their rights in Iran?