

GALE IN CONTEXT: BIOGRAPHY

DISCOVER NEW INDIVIDUALS WITH PERSON SEARCH

Person Search within Gale In Context: Biography helps you find individuals based on specific characteristics like ethnicity, gender, or occupation.

To access Person Search select it on the Homepage, or use it within Advanced Search.

Utilize as many filters as you like, the more you select the more precise your search will be.

As an example, if you are looking for female authors, you can select “Female” under the Gender filter and enter the occupation “Author” in the Occupation field.

If you can't find the person you're looking for, try adding or removing filters (to make searches more precise or broad).

The screenshot shows the Gale In Context Biography Person Search interface. On the left, there are search limiters for Ethnicity, Gender, Nationality, Occupation, Place of Birth, and Place of Death. The main area displays search results for Toni Morrison, including a biography snippet, a photo, and a list of related content like Biographies, Reference, Images, Videos, Audio, Magazines, News, and Websites.
