

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Maj. Gen. James Wolfe, Canada.

February 12, 1748 - December 15, 1755; May 4 - September 12, 1759

Orders of the 20th Regiment of Foot, commanded by Col. George Viscount Sackville, and after Oct. 31, 1749 by George Viscount Borg. Wolfe was a Major and then a Lt. Col. in the regiment. Locations: Sterling, Canterbury. Maj. Gen. Wolfe was in command of the troops at Quebec. Orders continue up to the day before the battle at Quebec. Locations: Halifax, Nova Scotia. 112 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 1

Capt. Horatio Gates, Brigade Major, New York.

August 18 - October 12, 1758

Includes a Return of troops fit for duty at Oneida Station and a Return of artificers daily employed from the troops, Aug. 26, 1758. Location: Oneida Station, New York. 112 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 2

Company of a New York Regiment of Provincials, New York.

April 24 - August 25, 1759

Concerns the Niagara Campaign led by Gen. John Prideaux, and after his death, by Sir William Johnson. Locations: April - Albany, May-June - Oswego, July - Niagara, August - Oswego. Probably kept by Goosen Van Shaick. 106 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 3

Fort Cumberland, Arcadia.

May 9 - August 12, 1759

Joseph Frye was the commanding officer of the garrison. Also includes account books of John Robinson, 1763-1775. Locations: Fort Cumberland, Arcadia. Kept by Elhanah Boyden. 134 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 4

Commissary Wilson.

May 22 - November 3, 1759

Discusses the disposition of provincial and regular British troops. Locations: Albany, Fort Edward, Lake George, Fort Ticonderoga, Crown Point, Lake Champlain, Ligoneer Bay. Writer unknown. 180 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 5

Oliver Spaulding, Third Connecticut Regiment, New York.

May 27, 1759 - June 14, 1759

Locations: Albany, Half-Moon, Still Waters, Salotage, Fort Miller, Fort Edward. Writer unknown. 18 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 5.1

Oliver Spaulding, Third Connecticut Regiment, New York.

May 27, 1759 - June 14, 1759

Locations: Albany, Half-Moon, Still Waters, Salotage, Fort Miller, Fort Edward. Writer unknown. 14 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 1, No. 6

Various Units [Army]: French and Indian Wars.

June 21 - August 19, 1759; May 31 - July 16, 1760; October 11 - November 13, 1764

March of the combined British Regular and Provincial Army, in the campaign at Fort Niagara, under the command of Gen. John Prideaux and Sir William Johnson. Locations: Oneida Lake, Three Rivers, Great Falls, Oswego, Olenoous, Nidenindequeat, Prideaux Bay, Niagara. Kept by John Mackenzie. March of Provincial troops with the 44th Royal Highlanders, under the command of Col. Woodhull, to the New York frontier. Locations: Albany, Schnectady, Fort Ontario, Wallighea, Fry, Conojohary, Fort Stanwix, and Fort Brenington. Kept by John Petzgold. Return march of Col. Bradstreet's forces from Detroit at the close of the Pontiac War. Locations: Sandusky, Grand Bevier, Fort Schlosser, Niagara Falls. 130 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 7

Maj. Horatio Gates, Pennsylvania.

July 16 - September 2, 1759

Covers brigade's march from Carlisle to Pittsburgh, Pa. Writer unknown. 76 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 7.1

Maj. John Durkee, New York.

August 10 - October 10, 1759

Concerns work crews and construction at Crown Point. Locations: Headquarters, Crown Point, N.Y. Probably kept by Joseph Welsh, one of Durkee's soldiers. 111 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 8

French and Indian Wars.

June 4, 1760 - February 6, 1764

Contains a list of Capt. Barron's company, orders at Crown Point, July 27, 1761, orders of march, and methods of defense. Mentions Gen. Amherst. Kept by Maj. Rogers? 17 pages. (Original and typed copy).

Reel: 1, No. 9

Gen. Thomas Gage's Headquarters, Massachusetts. (American).

July 10 - December 9, 1774

General orders of Thomas Gage, Commander in Chief of the American forces. Location: Headquarters, Boston. Writer unknown. 128 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 10

Gen. Thomas Gage's Headquarters, Massachusetts. (American).

July 10 - December 9, 1774

General orders of Thomas Gage, Commander in Chief of the American forces. Location: Headquarters, Boston. Writer unknown. 90 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 1, No. 11

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Gen. Thomas Gage's Headquarters, Massachusetts. (American).

July 10 - December 9, 1774
General orders of Thomas Gage, Commander in Chief of the American forces. Location: Headquarters, Boston. Writer unknown. 90 pages. (Typed Carbon Copy).

Reel: 1, No. 12

List of Thomas Knowlton's Company of Ashford, Connecticut Volunteers. (American).

April, 1775
The company marched for Cambridge upon hearing of the battle at Lexington, and enlisted there for seven months. Also includes a list of those members of the company who fought in the Battle of Bunker Hill, June 17, 1775. Writer unknown. 20 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 13

Gen. George Washington's Headquarters, Massachusetts. (American).

May 13 - October 22, 1775
Pertains to Bunker Hill and the period of the active siege of Boston. "First orderly book of the American Revolution." Locations: Cambridge [No. 4] Bunker Hill, Mass. Writer unknown. 180 pages.

Reel: 1, No. 14

Gen. George Washington's Headquarters, Massachusetts. (American).

May 13 - October 22, 1775
Pertains to Bunker Hill and the period of the active siege of Boston. "First orderly book of the American Revolution." Locations: Cambridge [No. 4] Bunker Hill, Mass. Writer unknown. 180 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 2, No. 15

Sixth Connecticut Regiment of 1775, Connecticut and Massachusetts. (American).

June 5 - September 18, 1775
Regimental orders, and in the latter part of the book, the orders of Gen. Artemas Ward, Headquarters, Cambridge. Locations: New London, Ct. and after June 15, Roxbury. Writer unknown. 186 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 16

Col. David Waterbury's Fifth Connecticut Regiment of 1775, New York. (American).

June 13 - September 16, 1775; July 25 - December 6, 1775

This regiment marched to Canada under the command of Gen. Montgomery. Contains regimental and general orders, as well as a muster roll of Captain Lalmon Read's company (10th company of the regiment). Locations: Greenwich Camps, New York, Harlaem, Half Moon, Camp Island. Kept by Aaron Barlow. Diary of Aaron Barlow, including accounts of his journey from Redding, Ct. to Albany to join his company, the trip to Lake Champlain, events during the Siege of St. Francis, travel to Montreal, and the return to Albany. 120 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 17

Col. William Prescott's Massachusetts Regiment, Massachusetts. (American).

June 15 - September 2, 1775
Includes general and regimental orders. Covers the Battle of Bunker Hill and the active phase of the Siege of Boston. Locations: Cambridge, Mass. Writer unknown. 64 folio pages.

Reel: 2, No. 18

Col. Israel Putnam's Third Connecticut Regiment of 1775, Massachusetts. (American).

June 22 - October 7, 1775
Includes general and regimental orders and pertains to the Siege of Boston. Locations: Cambridge, Mass. Kept by Asabel Clark, 7th company. 134 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 19

Index of General Orders, Continental Army. (American).

July 3, 1775 - April 10, 1780; April 11, 1780 - August 14, 1783
102 pages.; 64 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 20

British Army Orders, Maj. Gen. Howe, Massachusetts. (British).

July 12 - September 21, 1775
Maj. Gen. Howe was commander of the British forces in America. Included in the volume is a return of the numbers killed, wounded, and missing on April 19, 1775 (Battle of Lexington) and June 17, 1775 (Bunker Hill). Locations: Headquarters, Boston. Writer unknown. 116 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 21

Col. James Clinton's Third New York Regiment of 1775, New York. (American).

August 27, 1775 - February 14, 1776
Commences at Albany and ends near Quebec. Probably kept in part by Ensign Thomas Lenington. 160 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 22

Gen. George Washington, Headquarters, Massachusetts. (American).

August 31 - September 24, 1775
Contains the general orders of Washington. At end: A weekly return of the Second Regiment in the Service of the United Colonies of N. America commanded by Col. Wm. Thompson. Kept by Edward Burd? 104 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 22.1

Col. Jedediah Huntington's Eight Connecticut Regiment of 1775, Massachusetts. (American).

September 29 - September 30, 1775
Includes general and regimental orders. Locations: Cambridge, Mass. Writer unknown. 4 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 23

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

British Headquarters, Massachusetts. (British).

October 13 - December 25, 1775

Contains general orders from British headquarters and orders for the three divisions at the camp on Charlestown Heights. Locations: Boston. Writer unknown. 164 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 24

Unidentified Massachusetts Brigade, Massachusetts. (American).

November 30 - December 12, 1775

Contains headquarters, brigade, and regimental orders. Brigade contained the Massachusetts battalions commanded by Cols. John Paterson, William Prescott, James Scammon, John Grafton, and Edward Phinney. Locations: Near Leachmere Point, Mass. Writer unknown. 18 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 24.1

Capt. Thomas Pierce's Company, Massachusetts and New York. (American).

January 1 - May 17, 1776

Pierce's company was part of Col. Henry Knox's artillery regiment. Contains general orders of George Washington from Cambridge and New York, orders of Maj. Gen. Artemus Ward from Roxbury, Mass., and some regimental orders. Locations: Boston, New York City. Writer unknown. 178 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 25

Moses Little's Twelfth Continental Regiment, Massachusetts and New York. (American).

January 1 - July 21, 1776

Little's regiment was part of the brigade commanded by Gen. Nathaniel Greene. The brigade was ordered from Boston to New York, March 29, and arrived in New York, April 18. Covers the period from the siege of Boston to the British landing in New York. Contains general, brigade, and regimental orders, plus ten pages of company returns. Locations: Boston, New York City. Kept by Nathaniel Mitchell. 350 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 26

Col. Charles Webb's Nineteenth Continental Regiment, Massachusetts. (American).

January 3 - February 10, 1776

Contains Washington's general orders, Brig. Gen. John Sullivan's orders issued from camp at Winter Hill, and orders issued from Roxbury, Mass. Locations: Boston. Kept by a member of Capt. Elisha Bostwick's company. 42 pages.

Reel: 2, No. 27

Col. Alexander Mc Dougall's First New York Regiment of 1776, New York. (American).

February 9 - June 11, 1776

Contains general and regimental orders. The troops in the city were under the command of Gen. Lee; after March 7, under Lord Stirling; after March 31, Brig. Gen. Heath; and finally, Gen. Washington. Covers the period of the arrival of troops in New York City for the expected British assault. Locations: New York City. Writer unknown. 294 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 28

Col. Alexander Mc Dougall's First New York Regiment of 1776, New York. (American).

March 25 - June 15, 1776

Contains general, brigade, and regimental orders. The New York troops were under the command of Lord Stirling; after March 31, General Heath, and finally, Gen. Washington. Covers the period of the arrival of American troops in the city for the expected British assault. Locations: New York City. Kept by Capt. Wiley? 186 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 29

Unidentified New York Regiment, New York. (American).

June 28 - July 28, 1776

This regiment was a part of Gen. John Morin Scott's brigade and Maj. Gen. Israel Putnam's division. Includes Washington's general orders and Scott's brigade orders. Locations: New York City. Kept by James McKenney and Conway Connell? 182 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 30

Northern Army, New York. (American).

July 10, 1776 - June 3, 1777

Includes the general orders of Gen. Horatio Gates, commander of the Northern Army. Locations: Ticonderoga, Albany. Writer unknown. 112 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 31

Capt. Wetherill's Company, New York. (American).

July 10 - July 19, 1776

Company was part of Col. David Forman's New Jersey regiment, Brig. Gen. Nathaniel Heard's brigade, and Maj. Gen. Nathaniel Greene's division. Includes orders of Gen. Greene, and at the end, a "Weekly Report of Capt. Wetherills Comp ... August 17th 1776". Locations: Long Island. Kept by Charles Fisher? 33 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 32

Fort George, New York. (American).

July 17 - August 19, 1776

Regimental and garrison orders, given by a Col. Eyck[?] and Lt. Col. Peter Gansevoort. Lt. Col. Gansevoort was in command of Fort George; Col. Eyck probably commanded the regiment. Locations: Fort George, New York. Kept by James McGee? 14 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 33

Capt. Barnardus Swartwout's Company of Minutemen, Dutchess County Militia, New York. (American).

August 15 - February 27, 1777

Company was a part of Col. Jacobus Swartwout's Dutchess County Militia regiment. Included are Washington's general orders, Maj. Gen. William Heath's Col. Swartwout's regimental orders. Locations: Kingsbridge, White Plains, Peekskill, and Fort Constitution. Writer unknown. 3 volumes. 250 pages.

Reel: 3, No. 34

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Capt. Van Wyck's Company, New York. (American).

August 6 - September 30, 1776
Company formed part of Col. Jacobus Swartwout's regiment of minutemen, of the Dutchess County Militia. Includes general, brigade, and regimental orders, provision returns, and morning reports. Locations: Kingsbridge. Writer unknown. 112 pages.
Reel: 3, No. 35

Brig. Gen. Alexander Mc Dougall's Brigade, New York. (American).

August 12 - November 27, 1776
Contains general and division orders. McDougall was promoted Brig. Gen. by order of the Continental Congress (noted in orderly book, Aug. 12) and assumed command of a brigade composed of his 1st N.Y. Regt., Ritzema's and Webb's regiments, and the artificers. After the loss at New York City, the New Jersey regiments were also placed under his command. Covers period of successful British attack on Long Island and the Continental army's retreat. Locations: New York City, White Plains. Writer unknown. 130 pages.
Reel: 3, No. 36

British Regiment Footguards, New York and New Jersey. (British).

August 14, 1776 - January 28, 1777
Entry date "Sept 22d, 1776" reports the execution of Nathan Hale as a spy: "A spy from the enemy by his own full confession, Apprehended last night, was this day executed at 11 o'clock in front of the artillery park". Contains general, brigade, and regimental orders. Locations: Staten Island, New Utrecht and Newtown (L.I.); New York Island, New Rochelle, White Plains, Dobb's Ferry, and Delancy's Mill, N.Y.; Newark, Amboy, Rariton's Landing, Trenton, and Brunswick, N.J. Writer unknown. 346 pages.
Reel: 3, No. 37

Brig. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Brigade, New York. (American).

September 21 - April 8, 1777
Brigade would comprise part of the troops under the command of Gen. Israel Putnam at the Highlands and was involved in skirmishes near White Plains, including Chatterton's Hill. Kept by Major Taylor, Brigade Adjutant, and Major Richard Platt, Brigade Adjutant. 174 pages.
Reel: 3, No. 38

Col. Christopher Lippitt's Rhode Island Regiment, Rhode Island and New York. (American).

September 14 - October 31, 1776
Contains general and regimental orders. Locations: New Port, R.I.; Harlem, Mile Square, and White Plains, N.Y. Volume also contains the accounts of Nathan Harvey of Providence, R.I., 1788-1790, involving farm transactions. Writer unknown. 90 pages.
Reel: 3, No. 39

Sir William Howe, New York and New Jersey. (British).

September 26, 1776 - June 2, 1777
Contains general orders of Sir William Howe, Commander in Chief of the British forces in America. Concerns the Westchester Campaign and the Battle of White Plains, the capture of Fort Washington, the New Jersey Campaign, and the Battles of Trenton and Princeton. Discussion of Loyalist troops. Kept by Henry Knight, Aide-de-Camp to Lord Howe. 3 volumes. 322 pages.
Reel: 4, No. 40

Diary of Sgt. James Humphrey, New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts. (American).

September 30 - November 24, 1776
Sgt. Humphrey belonged to Capt. Gore's company, which was part of Col. William McIntosh's 1st Massachusetts Militia regiment. This diary is a "Journal of our march from Dorchester to New York" which records the Battle of Greenwich and minor engagements in Westchester County. Contains some headquarters, division, and regimental orders. 60 pages.
Reel: 4, No. 40.1

Lt. Col. Charles Mawhood's Seventeenth Regiment of Foot, New York and New Jersey. (British).

October 11 - December 28, 1776
Contains headquarters, division, brigade, and regimental orders. Locations: New York City, White Plains, Mile Square Camp, Delancy's Mills, N.Y.; Newark, Trenton, Princeton, Middlebush, and New Brunswick, N.J. Writer unknown. 172 pages.
Reel: 4, No. 41

Col. Peter Gansevoort's Third New York Regiment of 1777, New York and New Jersey. (American).

February 17, 1777 - May 21, 1778
Kept at the headquarters of Lt. Col. Marinus Willett, who commanded Fort Constitution. Contains general, regimental, and garrison orders issued from Morristown, N.J., Fishkill and Fort Constitution, N.Y., and on May 26, 1777, from Fort Schuyler, N.Y. Writer unknown. 124 pages.
Reel: 4, No. 42

Brig. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Brigade, New York and New Jersey. (American).

April 9 - August 28, 1777
The brigade was stationed in the Highlands which was under the command of Maj. Gen. Israel Putnam. Contains general, division, brigade, and after orders. Locations: Highlands, Peekskill, N.Y.; Morristown, N.J. Kept by Richard Platt, Brigade Adjutant. 87 pages.
Reel: 4, No. 43

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Brig. Gen. Oliver Delancy's Brigade, New York. (British).

February 20, 1777 - June 29, 1778

Oliver Delancy was the senior Loyalist officer in the Revolution, and he initially raised this Loyalist brigade of 1,500 men for the defense of Long Island. Contains headquarters, general, brigade, battalion, circular, and private orders, as well as discussion of Loyalist regiments. Locations: Oyster Bay (L.I.), New York City, Kingsbridge, Harlem Heights, Huntington, Morris House, Jamaica (L.I.), New Town (L.I.), and Flushing (L.I.). Writer unknown. 192 pages.

Reel: 4, No. 44

Col. Daniel Morgan's Eleventh Virginia Regiment of 1777, New Jersey. (American).

May 15 - June 9, 1777

Contains brigade, division, and regimental orders, as well as Washington's headquarters orders, issued from Morristown, N.J. Locations: Middle Brook and Bound Brook, N.J. Writer unknown. 29 pages. (Early copy of the original, now located in the Manuscript Division, Library of Congress.)

Reel: 4, No. 45

Forty-Seventh Regiment, British Grenadiers, Canada and New York. (British).

June 7 - July 3, 1777

Regiment formed part of Gen. John Burgoyne's troops. Contains brigade, battalion, and general orders. Locations: Point au Feu, River Bouquet, Chimney Point, Three Mile Point, Crown Point, camp before Ticonderoga and nearby places (most on Lake Champlain). Kept by Lt. Poole England, Adjutant, 47th Regt. 115 pages.

Reel: 4, No. 46

Lt. Col. Joseph Storer's York County, Massachusetts Regiment, New York and Pennsylvania. (American).

August 21 - December 31, 1777

Regiment formed part of a brigade commanded by Brig. Gen. John Patterson. From August 21 to November 7, the regiment served in the Northern Army under Gen. Horatio Gates at Van Shaick's Island, Stillwater, Bemis Heights and Albany, N.Y. This portion of the orderly book covers the period of Burgoyne's drive from Canada and his surrender. From November 22 - December 31, 1777, the regiment served with the Main army under Gen. Washington at Whitemarsh, Gulph Mills, and Valley Forge, Pa. Writer unknown. 76 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 47

Lt. Col. Joseph Storer's York County, Massachusetts Regiment, New York and Pennsylvania. (American).

August 21 - December 31, 1777

Regiment formed part of a brigade commanded by Brig. Gen. John Patterson. From August 21 to November 7, the regiment served in the Northern Army under Gen. Horatio Gates at Van Shaick's Island, Stillwater, Bemis Heights and Albany, N.Y. This portion of the orderly book covers the period of Burgoyne's drive from Canada and his surrender. From November 22 - December 31, 1777, the regiment served with the Main Army under Gen. Washington at Whitemarsh, Gulph Mills, and Valley Forge, Pa. Writer unknown. 76 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 5, No. 48

Brig. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Brigade, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. (American).

August 29 - October 6, 1777

McDougall's brigade took part in the Battle of Germantown. Contains general, division, brigade and after orders. Locations: Peekskill, N.Y., Pennybecken Mills, Shippack, Wentz's Worcester, and Towamensing, Pa. Kept by Richard Platt, Brigade Adjutant. 124 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 49

Maj. Ebenezer Steven's Independent Battalion of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

September 11 - December 23, 1777

The battalion served in the Northern Army, under the command of Gen. Horatio Gates. Contains general and regimental orders. Locations: Stillwater, Saratoga, Albany. Writer unknown. 74 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 50

Lt. Col. Joseph Storer's York County, Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

September 23 - November 5, 1777

Regiment served in the Northern Army under the command of Gen. Horatio Gates, as part of Brig. Gen. John Paterson's brigade. Contains general and brigade orders. Locations: Stillwater, Saratoga, Albany. Writer unknown. 26 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 51

Capt. Peter Brown's Artillery Company of The Philadelphia Militia, Pennsylvania. (American).

September 27 - October 14, 1777

Company formed part of Col. Jehu Eyre's artillery regiment of the Philadelphia Militia, serving in Brig. Gen. James Irvine's brigade, Maj. Gen. John Armstrong's division. Includes brigade, division, and Washington's headquarters orders. Locations: Townships around Philadelphia and Towamensing. Kept by John Osborn? 60 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 52

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Compilation of Orders Issued at Various Places by the British Army, New York and Pennsylvania. (British).

October 4 - November 28, 1777
Orders issued at Kingsbridge, Morris's House, Germantown, Philadelphia and New York City. Kept by Stephen Kemble, Deputy Adjutant General of the British Army in North America. 85 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 53

Capt. Peter Brown's Artillery Company of The Philadelphia Militia, Pennsylvania. (American).

October 9 - December 18, 1777
Company formed part of Col. Jehu Eyre's artillery regiment of the Philadelphia Militia, serving in Brig. Gen. Paterson's brigade, Maj. Gen. John Armstrong's division. Includes brigade, division, and Washington's headquarters orders. Locations: Townships around Philadelphia. Kept by Jesse Williamson? 175 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 54

Gen. George Washington's Headquarters, Pennsylvania. (American).

November 12 - December 26, 1777
Because Richard Platt kept the McDougall orderly books before and after this period, it is probable that this too is an orderly book kept for McDougall's division (McDougall was appointed Maj. Gen. Oct. 20, 1777). Covers skirmish at Whitemarsh, Dec. 4-5, and the army's move to winter quarters at Valley Forge. Includes Washington's general orders and after orders kept by Richard Platt. 74 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 55

Col. William Malcolm's Additional Continental Regiment, Pennsylvania. (American).

November 18 - November 26, 1777
Regiment served in Brig. Gen. Thomas Conway's brigade. Contains general, brigade, and regimental orders. Locations: Whitemarsh. Kept by John Steele? 27 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 56

Brig. Gen. Enoch Poor's Brigade, New York and Pennsylvania. (American).

November 23 - December 6, 1777
Contains headquarters and brigade orders Brigade was made up of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd New Hampshire Regiments of 1777, commanded by Col. Joseph Cilley, Col. Nathan Hale, and Col. Alexander Scammel, as well as the 2nd and 4th N.Y. regiments of 1777, commanded by Col. Philip Van Cortlandt and Col. Henry Beekman Livingston. Locations: Fishkill, N.Y. and Whitemarsh, Pa. Writer unknown. 32 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 56.1

Col. Philip Van Cortlandt's Second New York Regiment of 1777, Pennsylvania. (American).

December 18, 1777 - January 14, 1778
Regiment was part of Brig. Gen. Enoch Poor's brigade, which also contained the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd New Hampshire regiments of 1777, commanded by Cols. Joseph Cilley, Nathan Hale, and Alexander Scammel, as well as the 4th N.Y. Regiment, commanded by Col. Henry Beekman Livingston. Contains headquarters orders from Gulph, right wing orders of Gen. Sullivan, brigade, regimental and after orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Gulph, Valley Forge, Pa. Writer unknown. 51 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 56.2

Capt. Edward Lounsbury's Eighth Company, Second New York Regiment of 1777, Pennsylvania. (American).

January 5 - March 20, 1778
Regiment was commanded by Col. Philip Van Cortlandt and formed part of Brig. Gen. Enoch Poor's brigade, which also contained the 4th New York Regiment and the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd New Hampshire Regiments of 1777. Contains headquarters and brigade orders. Locations: Whitemarsh, Valley Forge?, Pa. Writer unknown. 32 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 56.3

Col. William Malcolm's Additional Continental Regiment, Pennsylvania. (American).

March 1 - March 8, 1778
Regiment served in Brig. Gen. Thomas Conway's brigade. Includes Washington's general orders, division, brigade and regimental orders. Locations: Valley Forge. Writer unknown. 20 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 57

Col. William Malcolm's Additional Continental Regiment, Pennsylvania. (American).

April 4 - May 15, 1778
Includes Washington's headquarters orders, division, brigade and regimental orders. Locations: Valley Forge. Kept by Peter Taulman, Regiment Adjutant. 98 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 58

Col. William Malcolm's Additional Continental Regiment, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. (American).

May 23 - June 16, 1778
Covers period of British evacuation of Philadelphia and American departure from Valley Forge. Contains Washington's headquarters orders, division, brigade and regimental orders. Locations: Valley Forge and camps. Writer unknown. 92 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 59

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. William Malcolm's Additional Continental Regiment, New Jersey and New York. (American).
June 17 - July 28, 1778

Covers period of army's march across New Jersey to West Point, including the battle at Monmouth, N.J. Includes Washington's headquarters orders, division, brigade and regimental orders. Writer unknown. 58 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 60

Brig. Gen. Jedediah Huntington's Connecticut Brigade, New Jersey and New York. (American).
June 19 - August 31, 1778

Brigade was composed of the 1st, 2nd, 5th and 7th Connecticut Regiments. Contains Washington's headquarters orders, division, and brigade orders. Covers period of army's march across New Jersey, including the battle at Monmouth, and at White Plains. Writer unknown. 172 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 61

Knox's Brigade of Artillery with Washington's Main Army, New York and New Jersey. (American).

July 23 - December 31, 1778
Brigade was stationed at White Plains until Sept. 15, when it marched with the Main Army to Fredericksburg. In December, the brigade was stationed at Pluckemin, N.J. Contains Washington's general orders and brigade orders. Writer unknown. 206 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 62

Knox's Brigade of Artillery with Washington's Main Army, New York and New Jersey. (American).

July 23 - December 31, 1778
Brigade was stationed at White Plains until Sept. 15, when it marched with the Main Army to Fredericksburg. In December, the brigade was stationed at Pluckemin, N.J. Contains Washington's general orders and brigade orders. Writer unknown. 206 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 5, No. 63

Unidentified Orderly Book, New York and Connecticut. (American).

July 22 - October 31, 1778
Contains Washington's general orders from White Plains and Fredericksburg, as well as Maj. Gen. McDougall's division orders from from camp at Second Hill and New Milford and Maj. Gen. Gates orders from Danbury. Possibly a McDougall orderly book. Kept by Richard Platt. 184 pages.

Reel: 5, No. 64

Second Brigade, British Footguards, New York. (British).

August 7 - December 25, 1778
Contains general, brigade, regimental and garrison orders. Locations: New York City. Writer unknown. 120 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 65

Col. William Malcolm's Additional Continental Regiment, New York. (American).

August 2 - October 10, 1778
Contains Washington's headquarters orders, division, brigade and regimental orders. Locations: West Point. Kept by Joshua Drake. 70 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 66

Maj. Gen. Alexander Mc Dougall's Division, New York and Connecticut. (American).

August 15 - November 7, 1778
Contains Washington's headquarters orders from White Plains, Fredericksburg and Pauling's Precinct, as well as Maj. Gen. McDougall's division orders from camp at Second Hill and New Milford, Ct. Also contains Gates' orders from Danbury. Kept by Maj. Ronald S. McDougall. 176 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 67

Knox's Brigade of Artillery with Washington's Main Army, New York. (American).

August 24 - September 13, 1778
Contains Washington's headquarters orders and brigade orders. Locations: White Plains. Writer unknown. 56 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 68

British Headquarters Orders, New York. (American).

September 11 - October 24, 1778
Contains copies of orders issued by the Commander in Chief of the British forces in North America, Sir William Howe, most regarding court martials and promotions. Locations: New York City. Kept by Lt. Col. Stephen Kemble, Adjutant General. 88 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 69

Col. William Shepard's Fourth Massachusetts Regiment, Rhode Island. (American).

September 21 - December 12, 1778
Regiment served in Brig. Gen. John Glover's brigade, together with the 15th, 1st and 13th Massachusetts Regiments. Contains Gen. John Sullivan's headquarters orders, Brig. Gen. Glover's brigade orders, and a few regimental orders. Locations: Providence, R.I. Kept by Capt. Simon Larned, Adjutant. 164 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 70

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

September 26 - November 27, 1778
Regiment formed part of the artillery brigade commanded by Henry Knox. Contains general orders, artillery brigade orders, and regimental orders. Locations: Artillery Park (near Fredericksburg, N.Y.), and Fredericksburg. Writer unknown. 112 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 71

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Knox's Brigade of Artillery with Washington's Main Army, New Jersey and New York. (American).

October 24, 1778 - March 1, 1779
Brigade served in the Hudson Highlands, marched through Crom Pond, N.Y., King's Ferry, N.Y. and Pompton, N.J. to Pluckemin, N.J. Contains artillery brigade orders and some general orders. Writer unknown. 152 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 73

Maj. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Division, New York and Connecticut. (American).

October 31, 1778 - April 29, 1779
Contains extracts from Washington's general orders and division orders. Locations: Camp at Second Hill, New Town, Peekskill, Fish Kill. Kept by Richard Platt. 186 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 74

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

November 30, 1778 - February 4, 1779; January 11, 1780 - February 18, 1780
Contains artillery brigade orders, and a few regimental orders. Locations: Kings Ferry, N.Y. and Pluckemin, N.J. Contains artillery orders, garrison orders from West Point, and headquarters orders from Robinson's Farm (across the river from West Point). Regiment formed part of the brigade of artillery commanded by Henry Knox. Writer unknown. 104 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 75

First Battalion of Guards, New York. (British).

January 1, 1779 - December 28, 1779
Contains garrison, battalion, and brigade orders, as well as the general orders of Sir Henry Clinton. Locations: New York City (including Laurel Hill and Morris's House). Writer unknown. 338 pages.

Reel: 6, No. 77

Lt. Col. Aaron Burr's Regiment, New York. (American).

January 15 - February 28, 1779
Burr's detachment formed part of Alexander McDougall's troops. Contains orders of McDougall and Lt. Col. Burr. Locations: Westchester County, N.Y. Writer unknown. 13 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 78

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

February 5 - May 30, 1779
Regiment formed part of the artillery brigade commanded by Henry Knox. Contains general orders of Washington, artillery brigade, and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Artillery Park, N.Y. and Pluckemin, N.J. Writer unknown. 172 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 79

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

February 5 - May 30, 1779
Regiment formed part of the artillery brigade commanded by Henry Knox. Contains general orders of Washington, artillery brigade, and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Artillery Park, N.Y. and Pluckemin, N.J. Writer unknown. 172 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 7, No. 80

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery. Book of Monthly and Weekly Returns. (American).

March 26, 1779 - November 15, 1783
In April of 1782, the regiment was termed the "New York Regiment of Artillery" and later was called "Sebastian Bauman N.Y. Corps of Artillery". Sebastian Bauman was a major in the regiment and took command in Lamb's absence. Regiment formed a part of Henry Knox's Artillery Brigade. Kept by G. Hubbell, Lieut. Joseph Ashton, Lieut James Giles, and James Bradford. 103 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 81

Washington's Headquarters Orders and West Point Garrison Orders, New Jersey and New York. (American).

May 5 - June 21, 1779; June 26 - September 17, 1781
Contains headquarters orders of Gen. George Washington as well as resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Peekskill, N.Y., Middle Brook, N.J., Highlands, N.Y., West Point, N.Y. Writer unknown. Contains garrison orders from West Point, N.Y. Writer unknown. 65 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 82

Col. Josiah Starr's First Connecticut Regiment of 1777, New York. (American).

May 14 - August 7, 1779
Contains general, brigade, wing, and regimental orders, as well as weekly returns and lists of ammunition given individual soldiers. Concerns operations along the east side of the Hudson, including a record of the capture of Stony Point, July 16, 1779. Locations: Mandeville's. Kept by Sgt. Daniel Coit. 240 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 83

Gen. Edward Hand's Headquarters, New Jersey. (American).

May 28 - July 4, 1779
Includes general, division and brigade orders. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Middle Brook, Springfield, Pompton Plain, Kingswood, Galloways, Smith's Clove, Dean Furnace. Writer unknown. 103 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 84

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Capt. John Titus's Company, Fourth New York Regiment of 1777, New York. (American).

May 29 - August 6, 1779

Regiment, commanded by Lt. Col. Frederick Weisenfels, formed part of Gen. James Clinton's brigade. Company took part in Gen. John Sullivan's Indian expedition. Contains Sullivan's orders, garrison orders from Fort Plank, and regimental orders. Locations: Fort Plank and Lake Oswego. Writer unknown. 178 pages. (Photostat).

Reel: 7, No. 85

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, Pennsylvania. (American).

June - July 24, 1779

Col. Malcolm's Additional Continental Regt. was ordered to merge with Spencer's regt., April 22, 1779. The regiment formed part of Gen. Maxwell's brigade and was to take part in Sullivan's Indian expedition. Contains headquarters, detachment and regimental orders. Locations: Bullock's House, Wyoming (now Wilkesbarre). Kept by Peter Taulman, Adjutant. 105 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 86

Maj. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Division, New York. (American).

June 6 - August 21, 1779

Contains MC Dougall's orders, extracts from the general orders of Washington at Moor's House, and garrison orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Highlands, West Point, Moor's House. Writer unknown. 282 pages.

Reel: 7, No. 87

Col. Francis Johnson's Fifth Pennsylvania Regiment, New York and New Jersey. (American).

June 5 - July 7, 1779

Regiment formed part of the 2nd brigade of Maj. Gen. St. Clair's Pennsylvania division and served with the Main Army. Contains general, division, and brigade orders. Locations: Smith's Clove, Forrest of Dean. Kept by James Giles? 172 pages.

Reel: 8, No. 88

Brigade of Artillery, New Jersey and New York. (American).

June 6 - August 8, 1779; August 4 - 30, 1780

Contains Washington's general orders from Stott's House, Smith's Clove, Stony Point, New Windsor, and West Point. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Contains garrison orders from West Point. Writer unknown. 145 pages.

Reel: 8, No. 89

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New Jersey and New York. (American).

June 8 - August 19, 1779

Contains brigade and regimental orders. Regiment was part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Locations: Whippany, N.J. and Chester, N.Y. Kept by Chilian Ford, Adjutant. 110 pages.

Reel: 8, No. 90

Col. Thomas Nixon's Sixth Massachusetts Regiment, New York and New Jersey. (American).

July 10, 1779 - September 13, 1780

Regiment formed a part of Gen. Robert Howe's division, which was in the Left Wing, commanded by Gen. William Heath. Contains headquarters, division, brigade, wing and regimental orders. Locations: Highlands and Orangetown, N.Y.; Teaneck and Steenrapie, N.J. Kept by Lt. Samuel Frost, Adjutant. 4 volumes.

Reel: 8, No. 91

Col. Thomas Nixon's Sixth Massachusetts Regiment, New York and New Jersey. (American).

July 10, 1779 - September 13, 1780

Regiment formed a part of Gen. Robert Howe's division, which was in the Left Wing, commanded by Gen. William Heath. Contains headquarters, division, bridge, wing and regimental orders. Locations: Highlands and Orangetown, N.Y.; Teaneck and Steenrapie, N.J. Kept by Lt. Samuel Frost, Adjutant. 4 volumes (Typed Copy).

Reel: 9, No. 92

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, Pennsylvania and New York. (American).

July 27, 1779 - September 28, 1779

Regiment formed part of Gen. William Maxwell's brigade and took part in Sullivan's Indian Expedition. Includes headquarters, brigade, and regimental orders. Locations: Troops marched from Wyoming, Pa. to Tioga and Newtown, N.Y., then north in an attempt to reach Fort Niagara, then east. Kept by Peter Taulman, Adjutant. 171 pages.

Reel: 9, No. 93

Maj. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Division, New York. (American).

August 21 - November 20, 1779

Contains headquarters and general orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: West Point, Moor's House. Kept by Maj. Richard Platt. 180 pages.

Reel: 9, No. 94

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

August 24, 1779 - February 20, 1780

Contains general orders of George Washington, brigade orders including those of Henry Knox, and regimental orders. Locations: Chester, Warwick, Fishkill, N.Y.; Morristown and Mindon, N.J. Writer unknown. 160 pages.

Reel: 9, No. 95

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Samuel Mc Neil, Quartermaster to Brig. Gen. Edward Hand's Brigade. Orderly Book and Diary. New York and Pennsylvania. (American).

August 23 - September 7, 1779

Contains Gen. Sullivan's general orders and brigade orders, as well as McNeil's personal diary which chronicles the march with the Sullivan Indian Expedition from Tioga to Newtown, along Seneca Lake and then east to the capital of the Seneca nations. 26 pages.

Reel: 9, No. 96

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, New Jersey and Pennsylvania. (American).

October 2, 1779 - February 1, 1780

Contains headquarters, division, brigade and regimental orders. Regiment, which was a part of Gen. William Maxwell's brigade, took part in Sullivan's Indian Expedition and then returned to winter quarters at Morristown. Locations: Tioga, Wyoming, Heller's Tavern, and Easton, Pa.; Scotch Plains and Morristown, N.J. Kept by Peter Taulman, Adjutant. 172 pages.

Reel: 9, No. 97

Col. Philip Van Cortlandt's Second New York Regiment of 1777, New Jersey and New York. (American).

November 15, 1779 - June 23, 1780

Regiment formed part of Brig. Gen. James Clinton's brigade. Contains general orders of George Washington from West Point, division, brigade, regimental, and garrison orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress and a resolution of the New York Legislature. Locations: Pompton, Camp Rockaway, and Morristown, N.J.; Fort Edward, West Point, and Highlands, N.Y. Writer unknown. 216 pages.

Reel: 9, No. 98

Maj. Gen. Alexander MC Dougall's Division, New York. (American).

November 20 - December 5, 1779

Contains headquarters orders, general orders of Gen. George Washington, and garrison orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Moor's House, West Point. Writer unknown. 32 pages.

Reel: 10, No. 99

Col. Philip Van Cortlandt's Second New York Regiment of 1777, New Jersey. (American).

December 3, 1779 - May 29, 1780

Contains headquarters, division, brigade, and regimental orders. Regiment formed part of a brigade commanded by Brig. Gen. James Clinton. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress and resolutions of the New York Legislature. Locations: Morristown, N.J. Writer unknown. 103 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 10, No. 101

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New Jersey. (American).

December 7, 1779 - March 27, 1780

Covers period of the army's stay at winter quarters in Morristown, New Jersey. Contains headquarters, general, and regimental orders as well as brigade orders of Henry Knox. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Morristown, N.J. Kept by Joseph Ashton, Adjutant. 242 pages.

Reel: 10, No. 102

New York (Loyalist) Volunteers, Georgia, South Carolina, New York. (British).

January 1 - August 23, 1780; February 10 - June 28, 1782

Regiment served with Clinton and Cornwallis' Southern Expedition, during which time, Gen. Lincoln surrendered Charlestown to the British. Also located at Savannah. Contains regimental orders along with letters and memorandums written by Frederick DePeyster and others in no apparent chronological order. Locations: Camp James Island, Charlestown. Kept by Frederick DePeyster, officer of the volunteers. 100 pages.

Reel: 10, No. 102.1

Corps of Artillery, West Point, New York. (American).

January 29 - May 31, 1780

Includes headquarters orders of Generals William Heath, Robert Howe, and Alexander McDougall, as well as garrison and artillery orders. Locations: West Point, N.Y. Kept by Lieut. Florence Crowley. 268 pages.

Reel: 10, No. 103

Maj. Gen. Robert Howe's Headquarters, New York. (American).

February 10 - July 4, 1780

Howe took over command of the Left Wing of the Northern Army at West Point from Gen. Heath on Feb. 21, 1780. He was succeeded by Gen. Benedict Arnold on Aug. 3, 1780. Contains orders of Gen. Washington, headquarters orders of Gen. Heath and Gen. Howe. Locations: West Point, Highlands, Fishkill, Dobb's Ferry, Windsor, Phillipsburg, etc. Writer unknown. 270 pages.

Reel: 10, No. 104

American Headquarters, New Jersey. (American).

February 21 - May 17, 1780

Contains general orders of Washington, brigade and regimental orders. Charts at end name men and describe their clothing and equipment. Location: Morristown, N.J. Writer unknown. 228 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 105

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, New Jersey.

February 28 - April 3, 1780
Regiment formed part of Maxwell's brigade, Lord Stirling's division. Includes headquarters, division, brigade, and regimental orders. Locations: Morristown, N.J. Kept by Peter Taulman, Adjutant. 126 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 106

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New Jersey and New York. (American).

March 28 - June 12, 1780
Includes general orders of Gen. Washington, orders of Henry Knox, brigade and regimental orders. Contains acts and resolutions of the Continental Congress. Covers period of army's stay at winter quarters. Locations: Morristown, Highlands. Kept by Joseph Ashton, Adjutant. 154 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 107

Capt. Benjamin Frothingham's Artillery Company, New York and New Jersey. (American).

March 30 - September 2, 1780
Company was a part of the Third Continental Artillery. Includes brigade orders of Henry Knox, general orders of Gen. Washington, and regimental orders. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Verplanck's Point, Orangetown, Teaneck. Writer unknown. 99 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 108

Col. Otho William's Sixth Maryland Regiment, New Jersey to South Carolina. (American).

April 4 - July 26, 1780
Covers the march of the American force under Baron de Kalb from Morristown, N.J. to South Carolina. The troops left April 16 and arrived at Buffalo Run, where de Kalb turned over command to Gen. Gates. During the 1780 campaign, Lt. Col. Benjamin Ford was usually in command, because Williams was on staff duty. Contains general, division, brigade and regimental orders. Kept by Lt. Jacob Norris. 110 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 109

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, New Jersey. (American).

April 9 - June 6, 1780
Regiment formed part of Maxwell's brigade, Lord Stirling's division. Contains headquarters, division, brigade, regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Morristown, N.J. Writer unknown. 136 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 110

Corps of Artillery, West Point, New York. (American).

May 23 - July 5, 1780
Contains general, garrison and artillery orders. Officers mentioned July 4, 1780 belonged to the Second and Third Continental Artillery. Locations: West Point, Highlands. Writer unknown. 136 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 111

Corps of Artillery, West Point, New York. (American).

June 1 - July 14, 1780
Includes headquarters orders of Gen. Robert Howe, as well as garrison and artillery orders. Locations: West Point, N.Y. Kept by Lt. Florence Crowley, Adjutant. 152 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 112

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, New Jersey and New York. (American).

June 13 - August 6, 1780
Regiment formed part of Gen. Maxwell's brigade. Contains headquarters orders of Washington, division orders of Baron Steuben, brigade and regimental orders. Locations: Short Hills (now Metuchen, N.J.), Pompton, Prakaness, and Paramus, N.J.; Peekskill and Verplanck's Point, N.Y. Kept by Peter Taulman, Adjutant. 170 pages.

Reel: 11, No. 113

Unidentified American Force, New Jersey and New York. (American).

June 14 - September 3, 1780
Contains orders from headquarters at Springfield, Short Hills, Orangetown, Haverstraw, Whippany, Prakaness, Paramus, Verplanck's Point, Peekskill etc. Writer unknown. 144 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 114

Col. Frederick Weisenfel's Fourth New York Regiment of 1777, New York. (American).

June 19 - July 29, 1780
Regiment formed part of Brig. Gen. James Clinton's brigade. Contains general, brigade, regimental and garrison orders. Locations: West Point. Kept by Capt. Jonathon Titus? 83 pages. (Photostat copy of the original in the possession of Mr. Jesse W. Kelsey, Queens, Long Island, New York.)

Reel: 12, No. 115

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

June 21 - September 6, 1780
Contains general, brigade, regimental and artillery orders. Regiment was part of a brigade commanded by Henry Knox and was sometimes termed the New York Regiment of Artillery. Locations: Springfield, Rockaway, Suffern, Ramapo, Orangetown, and Teaneck. Writer unknown. 162 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 116

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Headquarters Orders, New York and New Jersey. (American).

June 22 - July 3, 1780

Includes garrison orders from West Point and headquarters orders from Highlands, as well as an extract from Washington's general orders at Short Hills. Writer unknown. 42 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 117

Maj. Gen. Alexander Mc Dougall's Division, New York. (American).

June 25 - July 4, 1780

Includes garrison orders issued at West Point. Locations: West Point. Writer unknown. 26 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 118

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York, New Jersey, Virginia. (American).

June 26 - December 30, 1780; August 4 - October 13, 1781

Contains artillery orders from West Point, while Col. Lamb was in command of the artillery at the post, garrison orders, and regimental orders from West Point and New Windsor. Contains regimental orders, orders for the right column, and brigade orders of Henry Knox. Covers period of the regiment's march with Washington's main army to Yorktown. Locations: Park of Artillery, N.Y., Haverstraw, N.Y., Chatham, Boundbrook, and Princeton, N.J., and Burrell's Ferry and Artillery Park, Va. Writer unknown. 85 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 118.1

American Headquarters, Highlands, New York. (American).

July 25 - September 4, 1780

Contains headquarters, brigade, garrison, and regimental orders. Locations: Highlands. Writer unknown. 128 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 119

Gen. Von Steuben's Division, New York and New Jersey. (American).

August 8 - October 3, 1780

Division was composed of the 3rd and 4th Massachusetts brigades and formed part of the Left Wing of the army. Includes Washington's headquarters orders, the orders of Gen. Greene in Washington's absence, wing and division orders. Contains orders concerning Arnold's treason and the sentencing of André. Locations: Orangetown, Teaneck and Steenrapie. Writer unknown. 180 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 121

West Point General Orders, New York. (American).

August 14 - October 9, 1780

Includes orders of Benedict Arnold, Alexander McDougall and Arthur St. Clair. On Oct. 9, Gen. Greene arrived and took command. Locations: Robinson's House (Arnold's headquarters while in command of West Point) and West Point. Kept by Hubbett? 54 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 122

Garrison Orders, West Point, New York. (American).

August 14 - September 29, 1780

Garrison orders issued by Col. John Lamb. Garrison consisted of a New Hampshire regiment and a Massachusetts brigade. Includes Benedict Arnold's orders, issued from his headquarters at Robinson's House. Locations: West Point, Robinson's House. Writer unknown. 68 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 123

Col. Oliver Spencer's Additional Continental Regiment, New Jersey and New York. (American).

August 29 - September 26 & October 16, 1780

Regiment was in the New Jersey brigade in the Right Wing, until detached Sept. 16, 1780 to join Livingston's at Stony Point. Contains Washington's headquarters orders from Teaneck and Steenrapie, N.J., brigade, division, and wing orders through Sept. 16, and garrison orders at Stony Point and Verplanck's Point after Sept. 17. Kept by Peter Taulman, Adjutant. 83 pages.

Reel: 12, No. 124

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

September 7 - November 2, 1780

Includes Washington's general orders and the orders of Gen. Greene during Washington's absence, brigade and regimental orders. Orders of the 25th Sept. discuss the treason of Arnold. Locations: Steenrapie, Orangetown, Paramus, Totoway. Writer unknown. 124 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 125

Col. Thomas Nixon's Sixth Massachusetts Regiment, New York and New Jersey. (American).

September 16 - November 6, 1780

Regiment formed part of Gen. Robert Howe's division. Contains general orders of Washington and Gen. Greene from headquarters, division and wing orders. Locations: Steenrapie, Tappan, Orangetown, Totoway. Kept by Samuel Frost, Adjutant. 169 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 126

Col. Philip Van Cortlandt's Second New York Regiment of 1777, New York and New Jersey. (American).

September 23 - October 1, 1780

Contains general orders, some of which relate to the discovery of the Arnold plot and the sentencing of André. Locations: Orangeburg, Totoway. Kept by Barnardus Swartwout? 9 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 127

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. William Shepard's Fourth Massachusetts Regiment, New Jersey. (American).

October 7 - November 19, 1780

This regiment formed a brigade with the 1st, 13th and 15th Mass. regts. in Maj. Gen. Robert Howe's division. The division was part of the Left Wing of the army. Contains Washington's headquarters orders from Paramus and Totoway, as well as wing, division, brigade and regimental orders. Includes an Act of the Continental Congress, Oct. 4, 1780, erasing the name of Benedict Arnold from the register of officers of the army. Locations: Paramus and Totoway, N.J. Writer unknown. 108 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 128

Col. William Shepard's Fourth Massachusetts Regiment, New Jersey. (American).

October 7 - November 19, 1780

This regiment formed a brigade with the 1st, 13th and 15th Mass. regts. in Maj. Gen. Robert Howe's division. The division was a part of the Left Wing of the army. Contains Washington's headquarters orders from Paramus and Totoway, as well as wing, division, brigade and regimental orders. Includes an Act of the Continental Congress, Oct. 4, 1780, erasing the name of Benedict Arnold from the register of officers of the army. Locations: Paramus and Totoway, N.J. Writer unknown. 108 pages (Typed Copy).

Reel: 13, No. 129

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New Jersey and New York. (American).

November 2 - December 16, 1780

Regiment was part of the artillery brigade commanded by Henry Knox. Contains Washington's headquarters orders from Morristown, brigade orders, and regimental orders. Regiment was temporarily commanded by Lt. Col. Ebenezer Stevens. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Totoway, N.J. Kept by Joseph Ashton, Adjutant. 74 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 130

Col. Thomas Nixon's Sixth Massachusetts Regiment, New Jersey and York. (American).

November 7, 1780 - January 1, 1781

Regiment was part of Gen. Robert Howe's division, which was in the Left Wing of the army. Includes Washington's headquarters orders from Totoway, Morristown, and New Windsor, headquarters and garrison orders from West Point, division orders of Gen. Howe, brigade and regimental orders. The Massachusetts line marched from Totoway, via Haverstraw, to the Hudson Highlands for winter quarters. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Kept by Samuel Frost, Adjutant. 182 pages. (Photostat).

Reel: 13, No. 131

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

December 17, 1780 - February 20, 1781

The second artillery was part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Contains Washington's headquarters orders, brigade and regimental orders. The orders of Jan. 30 describe the mutiny of the New Jersey troops at Pompton, N.J. Lt. Col. Ebenezer Stevens commanded the regt. in the absence of Lamb. Locations: New Windsor, N.Y. Kept by Joseph Ashton and after Jan. 16, by James Giles. 163 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 132

Col. John Durkee's First Connecticut Regiment of 1781, New York. (American).

January 30 - April 23, 1781

Regiment, which formed a brigade with the 3rd and 5th Connecticut regiments, was garrisoned at West Point. Contains Washington's headquarters orders from New Windsor, garrison, division, brigade and regimental orders. Kept by Libeus Loomis, Adjutant. 180 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 133

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

February 21 - March 28, 1781

The 2nd artillery was part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Contains Washington's headquarters orders, brigade and regimental orders. A Geo. Fleming appears to have been in command of the regiment during Lamb's absence. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: New Windsor, N.Y. Kept by Lt. James Giles, Adjutant. 160 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 134

Lt. Col. John Brook's Seventh Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

March 12 - May 12, 1781

Includes headquarters orders from West Point and New Windsor, garrison and regimental orders. Gen. Heath commanded West Point at this time. Locations: West Point. Writer unknown. 146 pages.

Reel: 13, No. 135

Artillery Orders, West Point, New York. (American).

April 18 - May 31, 1781

Contains Washington's headquarters orders from New Windsor, garrison and artillery orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: West Point, New Windsor. Writer unknown. 110 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 136

British Headquarters Orders, New York. (British).

April 25 - August 2, 1781

Contains headquarters orders of Henry Clinton, Commander in Chief of the British forces in America. Locations: Staten Island, New York City. Writer unknown. 84 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 137

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York.

May 29 - June 22, 1781

The 2nd artillery was part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Contains Washington's general orders, brigade orders, and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Lt. Col. Ebenezer Stevens appears to have been commanding the regt. in Lamb's absence. Kept by J. Giles, Adjutant. 74 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 138

Col. Rufus Putnam's Fifth Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

May 31 - August 10, 1781

Contains Washington's general orders from headquarters at New Windsor, Peekskill, Phillipsburg and Dobb's Ferry, as well as garrison orders at West Point, division, brigade, and regimental orders. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress, Washington's comments on the successes of Gen. Greene's troops in South Carolina, and on the maneuvering of the army to meet the French forces under the command of Rochambeau. The regiment was stationed at West Point, Peekskill, Phillipsburg, and Dobb's Ferry. Writer unknown. 263 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 139

Headquarters Orders, New York. (American).

June 1 - October 2, 1781

Contains Washington's orders from headquarters at New Windsor, Valentine Hill, Phillipsburg and Dobb's Ferry, before his departure with the Main Army to Yorktown, August 19. Also includes orders of Gen. Heath and right wing orders of Lord Stirling from Peekskill and Continental Village in the Highlands, August to October. Heath commanded the Hudson Highlands. Resolutions of the Continental Congress, Washington's comments on Greene's successes in South Carolina and on the action at Tarrytown are included. Covers period of the arrival of French troops under Rochambeau, and the arrival of Comte De Grasse's French fleet in the Chesapeake. Writer unknown. 256 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 140

Artillery Orders, West Point, New York. (American).

June 9 - June 29, 1781

Contains garrison, artillery and extracts from headquarters orders of Washington at New Windsor, included in the after orders of Gen. Howe. Locations: West Point, New Windsor. Writer unknown. 65 badly mutilated and water-stained pages.

Reel: 14, No. 141

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia. (American).

June 20 - October 21, 1781

The 2nd artillery was part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Includes Washington's general orders from New Windsor, Phillipsburg, points on the march South, Williamsburg Va., and before Yorktown, Va., as well as brigade, regimental, and right column orders. The regiment marched with Washington's main army and participated in the Battle of Yorktown. Locations: Peekskill, Croton, Tarrytown, Haverstraw, N.Y.; Chatham, Springfield, Boundbrook, Princeton, N.J.; Philadelphia, Pa.; James River, Trebell's Landing, Before York, Va. Kept by James Giles, Adjutant. 244 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 143

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

July 3 - September 29, 1781

Includes Gen. McDougall's garrison orders at West Point, artillery orders, and regimental orders, as well as extracts from Washington's general orders before marching South, and Heath's orders at Peekskill and Continental Village. The 3rd artillery was part of an artillery brigade commanded by Henry Knox.

Locations: West Point. Writer unknown. 129 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 144

Col. William Shepard's Fourth Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

July 31 - August 2, 1781

Contains headquarters orders of Washington, division and regimental orders. Locations: Phillipsburg, N.Y. Kept by Simon Larned, Adjutant. 17 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 145

British Headquarters, New York. (British).

August 1, 1781 - February 20, 1782

Contains headquarters orders of the British Commander in Chief, Henry Clinton, dated from Staten Island and New York City. Writer unknown. 181 pages.

Reel: 14, No. 146

Capt. Elias Stillwell's Company, Col. John Durkee's First Connecticut Regiment of 1781, New York.

August 5? - October 2, 1781

Includes headquarters orders of Washington from Dobb's Ferry, general orders of Heath at Peekskill, right wing orders of Lord Stirling, division, brigade, and regimental orders. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Dobb's Ferry, Peekskill, Continental Village. Writer unknown. 172 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 147

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Sylvanus Seely's Regiment of New Jersey Militia, New York and New Jersey. (American).

August 15 - October 15, 1781

Contains some headquarters and brigade orders, but mainly regimental orders. Locations: Dobb's Ferry, N.Y. and Connecticut Farms, N.Y. Writer unknown. 30 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 148

Col. Philip Van Cortlandt's Second New York Regiment of 1777, Virginia. (American).

September 26 - October 30, 1781

Contains headquarters orders and after orders of Washington from Williamsburg and before Yorktown, concerning the deployment of the army. Also contains the right wing orders of Gen. St. Clair. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Williamsburg, Yorktown. Kept by Barnardus Swartwout Jr. 76 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 149

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, Virginia. (American).

October 7 - October 30, 1781

Contains headquarters orders of Gen. Washington before Yorktown, detailing instructions for the siege, brigade orders of Henry Knox, which on Oct. 20, commend the artillery's performance at Yorktown. Contains acts and resolutions of the Continental Congress. Writer unknown. 53 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 150

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

November 24, 1781 - January 5, 1782

Contains Washington's headquarters orders from Highlands, garrison orders from West Point, and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress, including one commending the artillery for valor at Yorktown. Crane's regiment formed part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Locations: Highlands, West Point. Writer unknown. 134 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 151

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New Jersey. (American).

December 7, 1781 - February 4, 1782

The second artillery was part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Contains garrison, regimental, and a few headquarters orders from Philadelphia. Includes a resolutions of the Continental Congress, thanking the artillery for its performance at Yorktown. Lt. Col. Stevens appears to have been commanding in Lamb's absence. Locations: Burlington Barracks. Writer unknown. 68 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 152

Muster Roll: Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery. (American).

September, 1781 - May, 1783

Contains weekly, monthly and inspection returns, which account for all members of the regiment by company and rank. The 3rd regt formed a part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Writer unknown. 200 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 153

Headquarters, New York. (American).

January 1 - August 10, 1782

Contains headquarters orders of Gen. Washington, after orders, and resolutions of the Continental Congress. Includes description of a court-martial for inciting mutiny in the Connecticut Line as well as the announcement of the "birth of a Dauphin of France". Mentions Baron von Steuben and Gen. Heath. Writer unknown. 156 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 154

Return Book: Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

January 1, 1782 - June 1, 1783

The 3rd regiment was also termed the Massachusetts regiment of artillery and formed part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Contains weekly and monthly returns for Capt. Nathaniel Donnell's 5th company. Locations: West Point, Fort Clinton, N.Y. Kept by George Standby? 118 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 155

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

January 4 - March 9, 1782

Contains Heath's orders from headquarters in the Highlands, garrison orders from West Point, and artillery and regimental orders. Crane's regiment formed part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade and was also termed the Massachusetts regiment of artillery. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Writer unknown. 147 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 156

Col. Rufus Putnam's Fifth Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

January 12 - March 29, 1782

Contains Heath's orders from Headquarters in the Highlands, garrison orders from West Point, brigade and regimental orders, as well as extracts from Gen. Washington's orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Regiment formed part of Brig. Gen. John Paterson's brigade? Locations: Highlands, West Point, N.Y. Kept by Lt. Parke Holland. 186 pages.

Reel: 15, No. 157

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New Jersey. (American).

February 7 - August 7, 1782

Regiment was also termed the New York Regiment of Artillery and was part of Knox's artillery brigade. Contains headquarters orders from Philadelphia, garrison orders, and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress, one respecting the court martial of Gen. Howe. Also contains discussion of the number of servants to be allowed to officers of the regular army. Locations: Burlington Barracks, N.J. Kept by J. Giles, Adjutant. 3 volumes.

Reel: 16, No. 158

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

March 12 - May 18, 1782

Contains Gen. Heath's orders from headquarters in the Highlands, garrison orders from West Point, regimental orders, as well as a few artillery orders and a few of Washington's orders from headquarters at Newburgh, N.Y. Crane's regiment formed part of Henry Knox's brigade of artillery and was also termed the Massachusetts regiment of artillery. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: West Point, Highlands, Newburgh, N.Y. Writer unknown. 167 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 159

Maj. Gen. Nathaniel Greene's Orders, Southern Army, South Carolina. (American).

July 1 - November 5, 1782

General Greene, who commanded the Southern Army, was awaiting the evacuation of Charlestown. Includes comments on the evacuation of Savannah and Gen. Wayne's part in the repossession of Lower Georgia. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Near Bacon's Bridge, Ashley Hill, S.C. Kept by Lt. Col. Josiah Harmar, Deputy Adjutant General for the Southern Army. 159 pages and index.

Reel: 16, No. 160

Lt. Col. Ebenezer Sprout's Second Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

August 7 - August 29, 1782

Contains Washington's general orders from Newburgh, Heath's orders from West Point, brigade and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Regiment formed part of a brigade which also included the 5th and 8th Massachusetts regiments. Locations: West Point, Newburgh, N.Y. Kept by Lieut. John Whiting. 87 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 161

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York and New Jersey. (American).

August 9 - November 27, 1782

Contains regimental and garrison orders, as well as extracts from Washington's general orders at Newburgh and Verplanck's Point. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Regiment was part of the artillery brigade commanded by Henry Knox and was also termed the New York regiment of artillery. Locations: West Point, Bethlehem township, Hackettstown, New Windsor, and back to West Point, N.Y. Writer unknown. 3 volumes.

Reel: 16, No. 162

"Opinions of the Court Martial Respecting Major General Mc Dougall" (American).

Maj. Gen. Howe was president of the court martial which tried Alexander McDougall for seven counts of "conduct unmilitary and unbecoming an officer". The arrest resulted from a clash of authority between Maj. Gen. Heath and McDougall when the former commanded the Northern Department and the latter, West Point. McDougall was acquitted on all charges but one, which stemmed from calling Heath a "knave". This manuscript contains the charges, stated on Aug. 28, 1782, the opinion of the court, and the Commander in Chief's confirmation of the sentence. Also includes some general orders of Washington from Newburgh. 27 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 163

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

September 1 - November 2, 1782

Contains garrison, regimental, and extracts from the general orders of Washington at Verplanck's Point and Fishkill. Regiment formed a part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade and was sometimes termed the New York regiment of artillery. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: West Point, Verplanck's Point, and Fishkill, N.Y. Writer unknown. 108 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 164

Unidentified Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

September 6 - November 19, 1782

This regiment served in the Left Wing, commanded by Maj. Gen. Heath. Contains Washington's general orders from Verplanck's Point and Newburgh, Heath's Left Wing orders, garrison and brigade orders. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Verplanck's Point, and after Oct. 26, West Point. Writer unknown. 96 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 165

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

November 27, 1782 - January 5, 1783

Contains garrison orders, regimental orders, and Washington's general orders from headquarters at Newburgh. Regiment formed a part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade and was also termed the New York regiment of artillery. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Newburgh, West Point, N.Y. Writer unknown. 119 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 166

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

January 1 - January 19, 1783

Includes Washington's general orders from Newburgh, garrison and regimental orders. Crane's regiment formed part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade and was sometimes termed the Massachusetts regiment of artillery. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: Newburgh, West Point? Writer unknown. 86 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 167

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

January 6 - February 19, 1783

Contains garrison and regimental orders, as well as Washington's headquarters orders from Newburgh. Includes a translation of a letter from the Minister of France as well as resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: West Point, Newburgh. Writer unknown. 120 pages.

Reel: 16, No. 168

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

February 20 - March 28, 1783

Contains general orders of Washington from Newburgh, garrison and regimental orders. Regiment formed a part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade and was sometimes termed the New York regiment of artillery. Includes resolutions of the Continental Congress. Locations: West Point, Newburgh. Writer unknown. 103 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 169

Col. Philip Van Cortlandt's Second New York Regiment of 1777, New York. (American).

March 28 - June 4, 1783

Headquarters orders of Gen. Washington from Newburgh, including letters from the Minister of France, the Secretary of Foreign Affairs and the President of Congress, all concerning the peace settlement, as well as brigade orders containing an act of the N.Y. legislature concerning land bounties for officers. Contains resolutions of the Continental Congress concerning pay and pension. Also contains copies of two papers pertaining to the issue of pensions to soldiers, a copy of the song sung on the 4th of July at Poughkeepsie, the Constitution of the Society of the Cincinnati, and other letters and memoranda. Kept by Ensign Barnardus Swartwout. 2 volumes. 140 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 170

Col. John Lamb's Second Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

March 28 - June 25, 1783

Contains Washington's general orders from Headquarters at Newburgh, most concerning the cessation of hostilities, as well as garrison and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Congress concerning pay and pensions, and the furlough and discharge of non-commissioned officers and soldiers. After June 17, 1783, all artillery with the main army was to be formed into a battalion-sized corps of two companies, commanded by Col. John Crane until Nov. 3, 1783. Contains an extract of a letter from Gov. Clinton directed to Col. Lamb, with extracts of resolutions of the N.Y. Legislature regarding land bounties. Locations: West Point, Newburgh, N.Y. Writer unknown. 2 volumes.

Reel: 17, No. 171

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

April 18 - June 1, 1783

Contains headquarters orders of Gen. Washington from Newburgh, regarding the public proclamation of the cessation of hostilities, as well as garrison orders and regimental orders. Includes resolutions of the Congress. Until June 18, the regiment formed part of Henry Knox's artillery brigade. Locations: West Point, Newburgh, N.Y. Writer unknown. 120 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 172

Col. John Crane's Third Regiment of Continental Artillery, New York. (American).

June 2 - July 21, 1783

Contains headquarters orders of Gen. Washington from Newburgh, regimental and garrison orders. Includes resolutions of the Congress, concerning the discharge of non-commissioned officers and soldiers. After June 17, 1783, all artillery with the main army was to be formed into a battalion sized corps of two companies, commanded by Col. John Crane, until Nov. 3, 1783. Locations: West Point, Newburgh, N.Y. Writer unknown. 114 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 173

Col. Joseph Vose's First Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

June 2 - 24; October 17 - November 3, 1783

Includes headquarters orders of Gen. Washington from Newburgh, as well as his farewell orders, orders of Maj. Gens. Heath and Howe, brigade, regimental, and garrison orders. Contains Congressional resolutions concerning the furlough and discharge of non-commissioned officers and soldiers. The 1st regt. absorbed elements of the 4th - 8th Massachusetts regiments, disbanded as of June 12, 1783. Locations: New Windsor, Newburgh, and West Point, N.Y. Kept by Ralph H. Bowles, Adjutant. 106 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 174

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Col. Joseph Vose's First Massachusetts Regiment, New York. (American).

June 2 - 24; October 17 - November 3, 1783
Includes headquarters orders of Gen. Washington from Newburgh, as well as his farewell orders, orders of Maj. Gens. Heath and Howe, brigade, regimental, and garrison orders. Contains Congressional resolutions concerning the furlough and discharge of non-commissioned officers and soldiers. The 1st regt. absorbed elements of the 4th - 8th Massachusetts regiments, disbanded as of June 12, 1783. Locations: New Windsor, Newburgh, and West Point, N.Y. Kept by Ralph H. Bowles, Adjutant. 24 pages. (Typed Copy).

Reel: 17, No. 175

Col. John Crane's Corps of Artillery, New York. (American).

July 22 - September 27, 1783
Contains garrison, regimental, corps, and headquarters orders of Gen. Washington from Newburgh. After June 17, 1783, all artillery with the main army was formed into a battalion-sized corps of two companies commanded by Col. John Crane until Nov. 3, 1783. Locations: West Point, Newburgh, N.Y. Writer unknown. 106 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 176

Col. John Crane's Corps of Artillery, New York. (American).

October 9 - November 7, 1783
Contains corps and garrison orders as well as Gen. Washington's farewell orders. Includes resolutions of the Congress. After June 17, 1783, all artillery with the main army was formed into a battalion-sized corps of two companies commanded by Col. John Crane until Nov. 3, 1783. Locations: West Point, Newburgh, N.Y. Writer unknown. 76 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 177

Lt. Col. Morgan Lewis's Second Regiment, New York City and County Militia, New York.

May 15, 1787 - October 28, 1794
This regiment, commanded by Lt. Col. Morgan Lewis, was part of Brig. Gen. William Malcolm's brigade. Contains general orders, brigade orders, regimental orders, and Legion orders. Locations: New York City. Kept by Lt. Gerard Rutgers, Adjutant. 90 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 178

Maj. Gen. Anthony Wayne's American Legion, Ohio.

July 13, 1793 - October 19, 1793
Wayne was appointed commander in chief of the American army in 1792. Contains headquarters orders. Wayne's troops were engaged in a campaign against the Indians in the Old Northwest Territory. Locations: Camp at Hobson's Choice, near Cincinnati, Ohio. Writer unknown. 182 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 179

Regiment of Artillery, New York City and County Militia, New York.

October 25, 1793 - February 14, 1800
Contains general, brigade and regimental orders. Regiment was commanded by Lt. Col. Sebastian Bauman until 1798, Maj. Peter Curtenius, and in 1799, by Col. Ebenezer Stevens. Contains resolutions of the Congress. Locations: New York City. Kept by Lt. John Swartwout, Anthony Lamb and P. Irving. 85 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 180

Maj. Gen. Anthony Wayne's American Legion, Ohio.

January 27 - June 26, 1795
Wayne was commander in chief of the American army. Contains headquarters orders and orders from the adjutant general's office. Wayne's troops were engaged in a campaign against the Indians in the Old Northwest Territory. Contains acts of the Congress. Locations: Greenville, Ohio. Kept by John Mills, Adjutant General? 146 pages.

Reel: 17, No. 181

Lt. Col. Gerard Steddiford's First Light Infantry, New York City and County Militia, New York.

January 28, 1804 - September 18, 1816
Contains general, legionary, division, brigade, and regimental orders, orders from Albany, as well as a few artillery orders. Regiment was designated the 1st Light Infantry in 1806; in 1808 it became the 6th regt. In 1807, the command of the regt. was taken by Lt. Col. Laight upon Steddiford's promotion to Brig. Gen. The brigade was a part of Maj. Gen. Thomas's division. The militia was called into actual service, July 15, 1807, when a quota of 12,000 men was ordered raised from N.Y. by the President. Locations: New York City, Albany, Westchester County. Writer unknown. 238 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 182

Lt. Col. Jacob Kingsbury's First Infantry Regiment, Michigan.

June 18, 1804 - February 20, 1805
Contains garrison orders from Detroit and Michilimackinac, headquarters orders from New Orleans issued by James Wilkinson, and from Washington, issued by Thomas Jefferson and James Wilkinson. Lt. Col. Kingsbury was in charge of the garrison. Locations: Detroit, Michilimackinac. Writer unknown. 88 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 183

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Lt. Col. Jacob Kingsbury's First Infantry Regiment, Michigan and Missouri.

August 24, 1804 - March 17, 1806
Contains Lt. Col. Kingsbury's garrison orders from Michilimackinac, his detachment orders issued at Cold Water and Belle Fontaine; headquarters orders from Frederickstown, Md., Washington, D.C., Belle Fontaine, Mo., and St. Louis, issued by James Wilkinson. Col. Hunt, by virtue of higher rank, assumed command of the garrison, Nov. 29, 1805. Orders for Aug. 24, 1804 - July 8, 1805, are bound after the garrison orders for April, 1805. They are filmed in the proper order. Locations: Michilimackinac, Mich., Camp Cold Water and Belle Fontaine, Mo. Writer unknown. 186 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 184

Lt. Col. Jacob Kingsbury's First Infantry Regiment, Louisiana.

June 4 - October 21, 1806
Contains district orders issued by Col. Thomas Cushing from Natchitoches, general orders from St. Louis, and a few regimental orders. Col. Cushing commanded the military district which included Natchitoches; Kingsbury took command in his absence. Locations: Fort Adams, Natchitoches, La. Writer unknown. 88 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 185

Lt. Col. Jacob Kingsbury's First Infantry Regiment, Louisiana.

September 8 - September 28, 1806
Contains district orders issued by Col. Thomas Cushing at Natchitoches, as well as general orders from Natchitoches. Col. Cushing commanded the military district which included Natchitoches; Lt. Col. Kingsbury commanded the district in his absence. Locations: Natchitoches, La. Writer unknown. 30 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 186

Lt. Col. Jacob Kingsbury's First Infantry Regiment, Louisiana.

September 28 - November 11, 1806
Contains general orders from Natchitoches, district and garrison orders. Lt. Col. Kingsbury commanded the district in Cushing's absence. The troops marched from Natchitoches to the Sabine River to assert the U.S. right of sovereignty, denied by the Spanish commander. Locations: Natchitoches, Sabine River. Writer unknown. 48 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 187

Lt. Col. Jacob Kingsbury's First Infantry Regiment, Louisiana.

June 18, 1807 - March 22, 1808
Contains general, garrison, district, and detachment orders. Lt. Col. Kingsbury commanded the district in Col. Cushing's absence. Locations: Fort Adams, Colombian Spring. Writer unknown. 190 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 188

Second Infantry Regiment, New York City and County Militia, New York.

August 27, 1811 - September 2, 1833
By general orders of the 13th and brigade orders of 17th April, 1812, the 2nd regt. was designated the 10th regt. and was reassigned from the 2d to the 3rd brigade, New York Infantry. Contains general orders from Albany and elsewhere, division, brigade, and regimental orders. The 2d brigade and later the 3rd brigade were commanded by Brig. Gen. Van Zandt, after 1813, by Brig. Gen. Masses, after 1817, by Brig. Gen. Blackwell, and after 1820, by Gilbert L. Mount. The regiment was commanded by Lt. Cols. Andrew Anderson, Gilbert L. Mount, John Sickels, Col. Wm. H. Maxwell, Lt. Col. Woodhull, and Col. John Lloyd. In Sept. 1814, the regiment was ordered to actual service in defense of the city and harbor of New York. Locations: New York City, Albany. Writer unknown. 400 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 189

Eighty-Second Infantry Regiment, New York City and County Militia, New York.

June 4, 1813 - November 28, 1817
The regiment was part of the 3rd brigade commanded by Brig. Gen. Robert Bogardus, Brig. Gen. J. Masses, and finally, Brig. Gen. Blackwell. The regiment was commanded by Lt. Col. Joseph Strong, Lt. Col. William W. Todd (1814), and Joseph D. Fay (1815-). Contains general, division, brigade, and regimental orders. The 3rd brigade also contained the 10th 51st, 125th and 142nd infantry regiments. Locations: New York City. Writer unknown. 147 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 190

Twenty-Fifth Infantry Regiment, New Jersey and New York.

July 3, 1813 - June 30, 1814
Contains general orders, regimental orders, and orders for Military District No. 9 (which included Fort George). Lt. Col. Jonas Cutting commanded the regiment. Locations: Newark, Fort George, Washington D.C., Horse Island, Sacket's Harbour, Grenadier's Island, Batavia, Cambria, Buffalo. Writer unknown. 112 pages.

Reel: 18, No. 191

Corps of Artillery, New York State Militia, New York.

April 27, 1814 - December 30, 1815
Contains general orders from the War Dept. and Adjutant General's office in Washington and general orders from New York City, as well as 3rd Military Department orders, artillery and garrison orders from Fort Columbus. Lt. Col. James House commanded the artillery corps and the garrison at Fort Columbus. The artillery under House's command was stationed at various points around the New York harbor. Locations: Fort Columbus, N.Y., New York City, Washington, D.C. Writer unknown. 418 pages.

Reel: 19, No. 192

Early American Orderly Books, 1748-1817 Reel Listing

Lt. Col. John Ditmar's Ninety-Third Infantry Regiment, New York State Militia, New York.

August 29, 1814 - June 7, 1815

Contains general, brigade, and regimental orders. The regiment was in the 22nd brigade, commanded by Brig. Gen. Jeremiah Johnson; on Aug. 29, it was ordered into "immediate service for the defence of the city and harbor of New York". Also contains printed general orders for the 3rd Military District, printed regulations governing officers in the district, and two printed orders of Brig. Gen. Jeremiah Johnson. Locations: Brooklyn, Fort Green. Writer unknown. 104 pages.

Reel: 19, No. 193

Entry Cancelled. This item, the original from which the typed copy filmed as No. 101 was made, was unavailable for microfilming.

Reel: No. 100

Entry Cancelled This item was a privately owned photostat copy for which permission to reproduce on microfilm was never received. The majority of its contents are also contained in other orderly books in the collection.

Reel: No. 120

Brig. Gen. Gerard Steddford's Tenth Brigade of Infantry, New York City and County Militia, New York.

August 31, 1814 - November 23, 1814

On Aug. 29, the brigade was called for "immediate service for the defense of the city and harbor of New York". The brigade was part of the first division of N.Y. detached militia, commanded by Maj. Gen. Stevens. Locations: New York City. Writer unknown. 192 pages.

Reel: 19, No. 194

Entry Cancelled. This item was unavailable for microfilming.

Reel: No. 142

Eleventh Regiment, New York State Artillery, New York.

August 31 - October 18, 1814

The 11th artillery regt., commanded by Lt. Col. Harsen, was part of the 1st brigade of New York State Artillery, commanded by Brig. Gen. Morton. Contains general orders of the 3rd Military District, division, brigade, garrison and regimental orders. Locations: New York City. Writer unknown. 99 pages.

Reel: 19, No. 195

Lt. Col. William S. Tallmadge's Forty-Sixth Infantry Regiment, New York.

September 12, 1814 - April 18, 1815

Contains general orders of the 3rd Military District, garrison orders from Fort Columbus on Governor's Island and from Fort Richmond and Fort Hudson on Staten Island, as well as infantry and regimental orders of Tallmadge at Fort Columbus. Lt. Col. Tallmadge was in command of the infantry on Governor's Island. Locations: Governor's Island, Staten Island. Writer unknown. 100 pages.

Reel: 19, No. 196

Entry Cancelled. This item, a typed copy of No. 71 above, was unavailable for microfilming.

Reel: No. 72

Entry Cancelled. This item, a typed copy of No. 75 above, was unavailable for microfilming.

Reel: No. 76