SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The majority of the documents in this collection are "backchannel" cables between the U.S. ambassadors in Saigon (Henry Cabot Lodge, Ellsworth Bunker, and Graham Martin, successively) and the President's national security advisers (primarily McGeorge Bundy and Henry Kissinger) regarding the situation in South Vietnam and/or the negotiations for ending the Vietnam War.

The largest segment of the collection consists of communications between Ellsworth Bunker and Henry Kissinger during the period of the Paris peace talks and includes: (1) Kissinger relaying to Bunker details of his secret talks with the North Vietnamese in Paris, and later the formal Paris peace negotiations, including drafts of proposed agreements and negotiations over signing procedures; (2) Bunker's prepared talking points for meetings with President Nguyen Van Thieu of South Vietnam to relay that information, and his reporting to Kissinger of Thieu's reaction to the information; (3) "think pieces" by both Bunker and Kissinger on the situation in Vietnam and the strategy for handling President Thieu; and (4) post-ceasefire diplomatic maneuvering, implementation of the agreements, and handling of allegations of ceasefire violations.

SOURCE & EDITORIAL NOTE

The documents in this collection have been microfilmed from the holdings of the Gerald R. Ford Presidential Library, Ann Arbor, Michigan. All documents have been microfilmed in their entirety and in the order arranged by the Ford Library.

SUBJECT INDEX

The first number after each entry refers to the reel, while the four-digit number following the colon refers to the frame number on which the file folder containing material on the subject begins. For example, 2:0331 refers to the folder that begins at frame 0331 of Reel 2. These subjects will not necessarily be found at the beginning of the designated folder, but will be located within it. This Subject Index is best used in conjunction with the Reel index, which lists not only folder locations but folder titles as well.
