Introduction

The papers of Daniel Ellis Byrd consist of 6 rolls of microfilm. The principal correspondents, with the inclusive dates of their correspondence, are as follows: John W. Davis, Director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People Department of Teacher Information and Job Security, 1955-1967 (128 items); John Kermit Haynes, Executive Secretary of the Louisiana Education Association, 1953-1977 (99 items); Thurgood Marshall, Special Counsel of the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., 1951-1956 (58 items); Robert L. Carter, Assistant Special Counsel of the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., 1953-1956 (36 items); J. Rupert Picott, Executive Secretary of the Virginia Teachers Association, 1954-1966 (25 items); Gloster B. Current, Director of Branches for the N.A.A.C.P., 1950-1970 (14 items). Other important figures who are represented in the collection by a few letters include the following: Roy Wilkins Executive Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P., 1954-1955 (8 items); Jack Greenberg, Assistant Special Counsel of the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., 1953-1955 (7 items); Medgar W. Evers, Mississippi Field Secretary of the N.A.A.C.P., 1954-1956 (11 items); and the Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., 1956 (1 item).

The important topics covered in the correspondence include the fight of Medgar Evers to gain admittance into the University of Mississippi, the internal organization and functions of the N.A.A.C.P. Department of Teacher Information and Job Security, and the merger of the Louisiana Education Association with the Louisiana Teachers Association. Also included are correspondence on different civil rights cases in Louisiana such as Alexander Pierre Tureaud, Jr. v. Louisiana State University Board of Supervisors and Catherine Battise v. Acadia Parish School Board.

Non-correspondence occupies box nos. 4 through 8. Within the non-correspondence are papers relating to the N.A.A.C.P., among which are Activity Reports of Byrd (Dec. 31, 1951-Jan. 1973); Activity Reports of Vernon McDaniel and Loftus C. Carson; N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc., Monthly Reports (Oct. 1952-Aug. 1955); and various other N.A.A.C.P. reports, such as "Action Program for Northern Branches: Implementing the Supreme Court Decision" (July 1, 1954), "Special Report on the Links, Inc. as a Sustaining Contributor to the Work to the N.A.A.C.P. Legal Defense and Educational Fund" by John W. Davis (Oct. 14, 1965).

Another topic treated in the non-correspondence is racial desecration of schools. These papers include reports by Byrd on school integration in several parishes in Louisiana; research material for the appellants in Brown v. Board of Education of Topeka, Kansas, which consists of reports on the ratification of the Fourteenth Amendment and school integration during the Reconstruction period; petitions to public school boards in the parishes of Ascension, Caddo, Calcasieu, East Baton Rouge, Evangeline, Iberville, Jefferson Davis, Lafayette, Lafourche, Livingston, Natchitoches, Orleans, Pointe Coupee, Rapidea, St. Charles, St. Helena, St. James, St. John the Baptist, Tangipahoa, Terrobonne, Vermillion, Washington, and West Baton Rouge. Following are documents on parish schools from different parishes in Louisiana and collected materials about desegregation in Louisiana and other states.

The non-correspondence also touches upon problems and organizations within the teaching profession. This category of records comprises items concerning the Louisiana Education Association, including the Constitution of the Louisiana Education Association, Louisiana Education Association Reports on the Annual Convention (1964-1967), "Recommended Policy for Teacher Dismissal," and minutes of the Louisiana Education Association-Louisiana Teachers Association

Joint Committee Meetings (1967-1968); items from teacher organizations in other states and from the National Council of Officers of State Teachers Organizations; documents from the National Education Association; and documents from the Louisiana Committee for the Dismantling of a Dual System of Higher Education. Miscellaneous non-correspondence includes reports and reprinted articles on civil rights questions and on education, Byrd's speeches, news releases and clippings, outlines, and resolutions, and biographical documents about Byrd.

Despite the amount of material contained within the collection, there are still significant chronological and topical gaps. Missing topics include the Minden lynching in Webster Parish in 1942, Byrd's work in states other than Louisiana, and his work in most of the civil rights cases. Chronologically, the collection is weakest between the years 1958 through 1965. Many of Byrd's papers were lost during hurricane Betsy in 1965.
