Introduction

The records of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People's Louisiana State Field Office consist of 48 rolls of microfilm. The largest part of the collection, is made up of correspondence, with the remaining part of the collection consisting of reports, press releases, minutes, news letters, complaints and newspaper clippings.

The correspondence in the collection is arranged chronologically and made up primarily of letters either to or from the Field Director of Louisiana. There were two Field Directors during the period of the collection. They are Mary Jamison, who served as Field Director from 1966 to 1967, and Harvey Ronald H. Britton, who became Field Director in 1967 and served until the Field Office was closed in 1976. Some of their main correspondents include some prominent members of the NAACP, with whom the Field Director corresponded on a regular basis. They are Roy Wilkins, the Executive Director of the NAACP; Gloster B. Current, the Director of Branches and Field Administrator of the NAACP; Richard L. Dockery, the Director of the NAACP's Region VI; and Emmitt Douglas, the President of the Louisiana Conference of Branches and Youth Councils. Other Officials of the NAACP for whom correspondence can be found include Carolyn Q. Coleman, the Director of Youth; Arnold Aronson, who served as Secretary of the Leadership Conference on Civil Rights; June Shagaloff Alexander, the Director for the Education Program; Lucille Black, Secretary for Membership; James Brown, Jr., Regional Youth Field Director; Raphael Cassimere, Jr. who served as President of both the New Orleans Youth Council and the New Orleans Branch; Allison L. Chapital, Senior and Junior both of whom served as President of the New Orleans Branch; Kivie Kaplan, who was President of the national organization; Clarence Mitchell, the Director of the Washington Bureau; Henry Lee Moon, Director of Public Relations; Edward B. Muse, the Life Membership Assistant; Robert L. Carter, General Counsel; Julius E. Williams, Director of Armed Forces and Veterans Affairs; Bishop Stephen Gill Spottswood, the Chairman of the Board of Directors; Aletha T. L. Simmons, the Secretary for Training; and Carla Allen Ranger, the Training Secretary for the Dallas, Texas Region.

Other famous correspondents for whom letters can be found in the collection include national and Louisiana politicians such as Representative Walter E. Fountroy of the District of Columbia, Senator J. William Fulbright of Arkansas, Representative Charles C. Diggs, Jr. of Michigan, Representative Bella S. Abzug of New York, Senator Russell Long and J. Bennett Johnston of Louisiana, Governor John J. McKeithen of Louisiana, Governor Edwin W. Edwards of Louisiana, Representatives, Gillis Long, Hale Boggs, F. Edward Hebert, and Lindy Boggs of Louisiana; Louisiana State Representatives Sidney Barthelemy, Louis Charbonnet, III, Dorothy Mae Taylor and Mayors Moon Landrieu and Ernest N. Morial of New Orleans; labor leaders Victor Bussie and Clarence "Chink" Henry; law enforcement officials such as United States Attorney Gerald J. Gallinghouse, District Attorney Jim Garrison, Superintendents of Police Clarence B. Giarrusso and Joseph I. Giarrusso, Judge Israel M. Augustine, Jr., and Louisiana State Attorney General William J. Guste, Jr.; and local civil rights leaders such as Rev. A. L. Davis, Rev. Avery Alexander, Celestine Cook, Daniel E. Byrd, and James J. Hayes.

There are a number of different topics which are covered in the correspondence. Many of the letters concern civil rights complaints. Other letters have to do with the internal structure of the organization. And there are still other letters about such things as the economic boycott in Ferriday, Louisiana and the arrest and conviction of Emmitt Douglas for inciting to riot, both events in 1969.

The non-correspondence, is arranged according to the origin of the document. This arrangement begins with documents from the Louisiana Field Director's Office, followed by documents from Louisiana NAACP Branches, the Louisiana State Office, Out-of-State Branches, the Washington Bureau, the National Office and other documents from outside the NAACP organization. Among the documents that can be found in these sections are monthly reports of the Field Director, press releases and news letters from all levels of the NAACP and other organizations, civil rights complaints made to the Louisiana Office, branch files which were arranged chronologically, Executive Committee and Board of Directors' Minutes of the Louisiana State Conference, documents from the State Conventions, monthly summary reports from the National Office, and documents from other organizations such as the Human Relations Committee of New Orleans, the Urban League, the American Jewish Committee and the Amistad Research Center.
