PUBLISHER'S NOTER

This microfilm edition contains Volumes 1-43 inclusive, 47, 50, 54, 62-64 inclusive, 67 and 74. Volumes outside the general interest of the main collection have been excluded. This selection has been made by Dr. Eveline Cruickshanks of the University of London, who considers the collection to be "one of the most important sources for late seventeenth and early eighteenth century social and political history."

As an aid to readers we have reproduced on Reel One the eighteenth century Manuscript Index of Volumes 1-43. We have also selected from the immense Card Calendar of Literary Correspondence in the Bodleian Library all the cards referring to the Ballard Collection. These have also been reproduced on Reel One. In some cases they refer to volumes not included in this microfilm edition. It is not known for certain whether all the correspondence within the Ballard Collection has been calendared but the cards, in excess of 4,500, do offer an invaluable finding aid to this collection.

We have not reproduced the manuscript index slips to the first 43 volumes which are mentioned in the Summary Catalogue of the Ballard Collection. These were found to be very faded, would have been difficult to reproduce, and after discussion with the Bodleian Library it was decided to omit them.
