Britain and Europe during 1978

This bibliographical guide to Britain and Europe during 1978 accompanies the Harvester/PSS microfiche collection of material produced throughout 1978. It is a sixth supplement to the 'package' Britain and Europe since 1945, (previously published by Harvester), which contains 26,000 pages of literature issued by 67 groups and organisations between 1945-1972. This update includes material contributed by 44 groups and organisations and, in addition to material produced in 1978, there are a number of items of an earlier date, not previously included.

The prime subjects of debates on the European Economic Community in 1978 have been economic and monetary union, and the first direct European Parliamentary elections, due to take place in June 1979. These topics raised new issues for discussion and the arguments put forward by both anti- and pro-marketeters show that the debate is still very much alive - not only at the level of particular policies and organisational structure, but also on the basic question of whether Britain should remain a member of the European Economic Community.

PLACE/DATE OF PUBLICATION/AUTHORSHIP

Publications dates are given as in the original imprint, except for undated items. Where the date of publication (or origination) has been inferred from reliable internal or external evidence the conventional form has been adopted: n.d. 1978? Where no named author is listed the item was issued anonymously. The place of publication is normally the address of the issuing body.

How to use the Index

As with the first collection and the 1973, 1974, 1975, 1976 and 1977 updates, concerned with the Common Market debate this update - which contains 1978 material issued during 1978 is arranged on the same easily-used and fully-indexed system. In a matter of moments the index takes you from your need for a particular item to the exact document you require.

HARVESTER/PSS UNIQUE PAGE NUMBERS

The Harvester/PSS unique page number again appears in the top left-hand corner of each page. As before the number on the first page of each document is the reference allocated to that particular document. This is the reference you will find in the index. Thus an item of 16 pages with page numbers, say 80 - 95, will be identified by number 80. The numbering of each group in the 1978 update follows in sequence from the numbering of the material produced by the group in the last collection. For example, the last page of Agenor in Britain and Europe during 1977 was numbered 2975, so the first page of Agenor in the 1978 update is 2976.

HOW TO FIND AN INDIVIDUAL ITEM ON MICROFICHE

This follows the same principles as in the previous collection. Consult either the Chronological Index, the Author Index, or the Title Index to find the title you want. Each document has been allocated a two-letter code. Before this code is a number, which identifies the 'package', followed by 1978 in brackets, which signifies the year of the update. The number after the two-letter code is the number of the specific document.

Suppose you want to read the Fabian Society pamphlet by Mark Swift entitled A regional policy for Europe (Young Fabian Pamphlet 48) written in April 1978. You can look for this in any of three places.

A. Chronological Index

You know that the item was issued by the Fabian Society. In the Chronological Index this group is given the Britain and Europe since 1945 package number 1, the update number (1978) and the two-letter code MN. Thus the Fabian Society looks like this:

1(1978)MN

1 is the 'package' reference. (1978) is the year of the update. MN is the group reference.

Each document has been allocated a unique number within the group and this particular document will look like this: 1(1978)MN 493, SWIFT, Mark. A regional policy for Europe. April 1978, 27pp. (Young Fabian Pamphlet 48).

B. Author Index

1(1978)MN 493 is the unique code for this specific document and in the Author Index it appears like this:

Swift, Mark, A regional policy for Europe. Fabian Society, April 1978, 27pp. (Young Fabian Pamphlet 48).
1(1978)MN 493.

C. Title Index

In the Title Index it appears like this:

Regional policy for Europe, A, by Mark Swift. Fabian Society, April 1978, 27pp. (Young Fabian Pamphlet 48).
1(1978)MN 493.

When you have the complete code for the document, find the 'package' in the Harvester/PSS collection. This is easily identified by the colour yellow used on all microfiche in this 'package', through the eye-readable name of the 'package' and through the 'package' number '1' which precedes each code. To identify the year of the update look at the date in brackets next to the package number e.g. (1978).

Then locate the group by the two-letter code. Then pick out the fiche on which the document number appears. Several documents are often filmed on one fiche and the fiche reference will read 1(1978)MN 493 - 525. Your document 1(1978)MN 493 will appear on this fiche.

Insert the fiche in the micro-viewer and move the fiche to read the document you want.

DESCRIPTIONS OF GROUPS AND ORGANISATIONS

There follows a description of each group that is new to this collection. In addition, where necessary, updated information is given on groups who have already participated in the programme. As in the alphabetical list, the new groups are distinguished by an asterisk to the left of their title.

*ADSE. ASSOCIATION FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIALIST EUROPE (1975-continuing)

Walter House, 418 Strand, London WC2.

The Association for a Democratic Socialist Europe was set up in 1975 by a group of socialists from several European countries with the aim of providing an opportunity for socialists to meet and discuss common problems. They thought that the involvement of socialists in European affairs had been restricted to ministers and party officials concerned with European questions - and that it was time this base of involvement was expanded. The Association's very existence reflects a discontent among some socialists with the development of the Community, who felt that "it remains a remote institution, built by elites and dominated by market forces operating within the framework of capitalism." As the first step in changing this, ADSE sets out to make more socialists aware of the nature of the Community and of the possibilities for change. This they do through open meetings, annual Summer Schools, and the publication of occasional papers. Membership is open to party members from all European countries. The Association's President is Ernest Glinne, a former Belgian Cabinet Minister, and the British Vice-President is Norman Hart, who is also Honorary Secretary for the British Committee for Europe Day.

*EUROPEAN CONSERVATIVE GROUP (1973-continuing)

St. Stephen's House, Victoria Embankment, London SW1A 2LA

The European Conservative Group is one of the six recognized political groups in the European Parliament, where it occupies a position slightly right of centre. Formed in 1973 when the British Conservative Party first sent representatives to the European Parliament, the European Conservative Group is composed of members drawn from three groups: the British Conservative and Unionist Party, the Danish Conservative Party and the Danish Centre Democrat Party. Sir Peter Kirk, M.P. was Leader of the European Conservative Group from 1973 until his death in 1977, and the present Leader is Geoffrey Rippon, M.P. who, as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster, was responsible for negotiating Britain's entry into the Community. The three Vice-Presidents are James Scott-Hopkins M.P., Lord Reay, and Ib Stetter, Chairman of the Conservative Party in Denmark. Offices of the European Conservative Group are maintained in Luxembourg, Brussels, Copenhagen and London, each producing information through pamphlets, booklets and conferences to publicize Conservative policies and activities in Europe. Within the European Parliament, the Group maintains close contact with certain other groups - the European People's Party and the European Progressive Democrats, thereby establishing, it believes, a balance between Socialist and Communist members, and Liberal and Right Wing groups.

From its inception the European Conservative Group has concentrated upon trying to make the European Parliament more effective as the only Community institution within which the citizens of the Community can have a say in matters which affect them. It considers one of its main functions to be a duty to comment upon the proposals for legislation drafted by the Commission and submitted to Parliament by the Council. The Group looks to the direct elections of 1979 as a means of strengthening democracy within the EEC, thereby producing an effective European Parliament which will work in partnership with national parliaments.

*THE NATIONAL COMMITTEE FOR ELECTORAL REFORM (1976-continuing)
60 Chandos Place, London WC2.

Responding to the belief that most people in Britain think that our system of electing members to Parliament is unfair because the result does not bear a true relationship to the votes cast, The National Committee for Electoral Reform was founded in 1976 to reform the present electoral system. Working closely with the Conservative Action for Electoral Reform, the Labour Study Group on Electoral Reform, the Liberal Action Group for Electoral Reform and the Electoral Reform Society, the Committee's work also concerns reform of the House of Lords, elections to the new Assemblies, and to the European Parliament. In pamphlets and leaflets it draws people's attention to the anomalies of electoral systems within the Community and shows that all the EEC countries (with the exception of Britain and France) operate some form of proportional representation in their domestic elections. Aiming at consensus politics the Committee's manifesto says that through proportional representation "Parties would be encouraged to seek ways of resolving their differences; new ideas would flourish when the adoption of a policy by one party was no longer the reason for its rejection by another; and the continuity of policy on major questions which we need so badly could be secured." Examining in detail the systems used by European nations in Fair Elections or Fiasco, the Committee makes its own proposals for a "sensible voting system for the European Parliament" and exposes the dangers from mild swings to massive defeats which could occur under the present electoral system in the United Kingdom. Under the Chairmanship of the Rt.Hon. Lord Harlech rarely has a pressure group acquired such an outstanding and wide-ranging membership in such a short time. To name but a few, the members include: Mark Abrams, Austen Albu, Professor Max Beloff, Sir Isiah Berlin, Lord Chalfont, Professor James Cornford, Andrew Faulds M.P., Sir Nigel Fisher M.P., Sir Peter Hall, Professor Bryan Keith-Lucas, John Mackintosh M.P., Lord Olivier, J.B. Priestley, Diana Rigg, The Rt.Hon. Lord Shinwell, The Bishop of Southwark, Professor Hugh Thomas, Katharine Whitehorn, and Angus Wilson.
