PUBLISHER'S NOTE

The John Rylands University Library of Manchester is the home of many glorious manuscript collections. Noteable amongst these are the splendid resources relating to John Ruskin and his circle (over 2,000 items), Oliver Madox Brown's novels and stories, papers of William Holman Hunt, the Rossetti's and other Pre-Raphaelites, and the wide-ranging art historical collections of the art collector Charles Fairfax Murray and art critic and connoisseur Marion Harry Spielmann.

This two part project entitled John Ruskin, the Pre-Raphaelite Brotherhood and the Arts and Crafts Movement brings these various related collections together for the first time, making them available to a broad scholarly audience on microfilm.

Despite the existence of printed editions of letters and papers of key individuals such as Ruskin it would be a mistake to think that the original manuscript sources can offer little new to scholars. Apart from the obvious importance of seeing the manuscript text to interpret deletions, emphasis, and mistranscriptions, it should be noted that this collection contains both "in" and "out" correspondence in many cases thus completing the picture that we have of the authors and artists concerned. It is also far more wide-ranging, both in capturing various types of material (diaries, notebooks, draft works, catalogues, etc) and in covering minor as well as major figures. The Fairfax - Murray collection, for instance, reads like a who's who of the nineteenth and early twentieth century art world with letters to, from or concerning Sir Edward Burne-Jones and his family, William, Jenny and May Morris, Frederick and Emma Sandys, the Rossettis, Charles Augustus Howell, George P. Boyce, George and Eliza Cruikshank, Simeon Soloman, Lord Leighton, Sir Frederick William Burton, Charles Lock Eastlake, Joseph Severn, D. Colnaghi, William and Charles Behnes, and others.

These inter-related manuscripts collections bring to life the culture and commerce of the literary and artistic circles of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and offer insights into many particular writers and artists as well as filling out the background against which they operated.

Part One contains John Ruskin's extensive correspondence series with Mrs. Fanny Talbot, the Guild of St. George, Henry Jowett, W.H. Harrison, Arthur and Joan Severn and Anna Blunden amongst others. It also includes interesting material concerning Sir Walter Scott and Ernest Chesneau. The Holman Hunt archive is covered fully including numerous diaries (especially of his excursions to the Middle East) and letters to and from Edward Lear, Frederic Shields, Michael Halliday, and others. Many of these discuss particular paintings in great detail. The Novels and stories of Oliver Madox Brown are also featured as are the letters of William Michael Rossetti. Finally, the first part covers the complete Fairfax Murray correspondence.

The second part completes the collection with further coverage of writers and artists including Edwin Austin, Frank Brangwyn, Ford Madox Brown, Walter Crane, W.P. Frith, William Holman Hunt, Sir Frederic Leighton, Edward Poynter, W.M. Rossetti and G.F. Watts. There is a particularly interesting section of correspondence dealing with the foundation of art galleries in Manchester and literary and artistic society in the North-West of England. There is also a remarkable "autograph" collection compiled by the Reverend Thomas Raffles which brings together the original letters of a wide variety of artists.

It is hoped that this collection will be welcomed by art historians and literary scholars alike and will help to inform many new biographies, appraisals and gallery notes.

Thanks are due to Dr. Clive Field and Dr. Peter McNiven of the John Rylands University Library of Manchester for their help with all aspects of this programme.

RUSKIN COLLECTION: BLANCHE ATKINSON.

148 items. Various sizes. 1873-84.

(a) Nos. 1-140, letters from Ruskin to Miss Blanche Atkinson (1847-1911), mostly addressed to her at 19, Edge Lane, Liverpool, 25 Mar. 1873 - Nov. 1884. The majority were written between 1873 and 1875. See Margaret E. Spence, "Ruskin's Correspondence with Miss Blanche Atkinson", reprinted from the BULLETIN, xlii. 194-219. (b) Nos. 141-8. These letters from Ruskin to Blanche Atkinson originally formed part of the collection donated by Mrs. Rawnsley (Nos. 1-140 above), as the series of numbers on the envelopes indicates. They have been acquired subsequently from various sources, namely: (i) Nos. 141-2 (Apr. and Nov. 1873), from the Rev. G. Shaw Hewins, Aug. 1963; (ii) No. 143 (27 Dec. 1877), from Mr. Loveluck of Wallasey, Jan. 1964; (iii) Nos. 144-8, July 1873 - Dec. 1878), from Mrs. L. M. Roberts, Jan. 1964, formerly owned by her aunt, Miss M. J. Owens of Barmouth.
